Application for Selection as Representative Payee of an Annuitant

If an annuitant is unable to manage or direct the management of his/her payments made under the Civil Service Retirement System (CSRS) or Federal Employees Retirement System (FERS), the Office of Personnel Management (OPM) requires that the payments be made to a court appointed guardian/conservator, or to an OPM selected representative payee with the clear understanding that the funds will be expended and conserved for the benefit of the annuitant. If the annuitant's full monthly payment is not required to meet his/her current needs, the representative payee is required to conserve the unused amount for the annuitant's future needs. The representative payee will be held accountable for the funds and will have to provide written reports, as OPM requires, to show that the payments are being properly used for the annuitant. Further, representative payees are obligated to notify OPM immediately when they are no longer acting on behalf of the annuitant, or of other changes in circumstances that would impact their ability to carry out their duties. If an annuitant dies and is erroneously paid annuity after death, the representative payee must promptly return the erroneous annuity paid. Such payments must be returned to the U.S. Department of the Treasury. The representative payee will also be held liable for any misused funds. In addition to receiving annuity payments, the representative payee is responsible for acting in the annuitant's best interest by authorizing the correct Federal income tax withholding from the annuity using Internal Revenue Service (IRS) form W-4P, Withholding Certificate for Pension or Annuity Payments. The representative payee can select the appropriate Federally sponsored health benefit coverage when applicable.

Please read the following instructions carefully to avoid delay in processing your application.

Miscellaneous Instructions

An individual applying to be the representative payee must include unexpired photo identification (e.g., a driver's license, passport, Federal ID, State ID, or U.S. Military ID) with the Application for Selection as Representative Payee of an Annuitant (RI 20-7). This does not apply to an organization.

Only one person or organization may be selected as the approved representative payee on file. That party will be fiducially responsible for submitting financial reports as requested by OPM.

OPM does not recognize a power of attorney (POA) or durable power of attorney (DPOA) for purposes of selecting a representative payee. Accordingly, do not send the POA/DPOA document to OPM with the RI 20-7.

Court Appointed Guardian or Conservator

If there is a court appointed guardian or conservator, including the estate, property, or plenary, an individual or an organization may apply to become the representative payee by completing the RI 20-7, and mailing it to OPM with an original or a certified copy of the court order. If you do not have the type of court order described above, or if you have a temporary or emergency court order with an expiration date of less than one year, we will need additional information as required in the OPM Selected Representative Payee section below.

Note that the following types of court orders are not acceptable by OPM and will be returned to the applicant:

- ▶ Photocopies that have not been certified
- ▶ A guardianship/conservatorship of the person only

OPM Selected Representative Payee

If a court appointed guardian or conservator, including the estate, property, or plenary, has not been ordered by the court, an individual, or an organization may apply to be an OPM selected representative payee by completing the RI 20-7. If the annuitant has not been found to be incompetent by the court, the following information is required to make a determination concerning the annuitant's competency and ability to manage his/her benefits:

- 1) A statement from a physician or other licensed health practitioner who has been treating the individual. The individual, or representative is responsible for any cost incurred in obtaining this documentation. The medical diagnosis, on his/her letterhead, must address the alleged incompetency, including:
 - A history of the specific medical condition(s) which caused the individual to be incompetent, including symptoms, physical findings, results of laboratory studies, and response to therapy.
 - The diagnosis should be in accordance with International Statistical Classification of Diseases and Related Health Problems (ICD) terminology or, in the case of psychiatric disorders, with Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders (DSM) criteria.
 - The duration of the medical condition(s), including the date the condition caused incompetency and the date, or expected date, of full or partial recovery.
- 2) Affidavits from at least two people who know the facts of the individual's competency, preferably one from a member of the individual's immediate family, and one from a non-family member. The affidavits must be sworn to, or affirmed before a notary public, or other officer who is authorized by law to administer oaths. The affidavits should state:
 - The relationship to and amount of contact with the individual during the relevant period.
 - What actions or incidents were personally observed that would indicate that the individual's condition interfered with the ability to handle his/her personal affairs and how often these incidents were observed.
 - The reason why a fiduciary was not appointed by the court to handle the individual's finances.
 - Who is currently administering the individual's finances.

Application For Selection As Representative Payee of an Annuitant

OPM places a significant amount of responsibility on the representative payee. Consequently, OPM is interested in selecting the most suitable person to be the annuitant's fiduciary. Therefore, it is necessary to determine your relationship to the annuitant and the extent of your ability to direct the management of benefits under CSRS or FERS in the best interests of the annuitant. If you have any questions regarding this form, you may contact OPM at 1-888-767-6738.
