Data Element Definitions

Calendar Year	Enter the calendar year in the following format: i.e. "2023", "2024"
Product FDA List Name	For each VBP arrangement which the State received manufacturer rebates in the prior CY.
NDC	NDC 9s used in arrangement (at dosage form and strength level). Example: 00001-1234, 1244, 1254,
of Prescriptions (number of beneficiaries)	The # of prescriptions (number of beneficiaries) field should reflect the # of Medicaid beneficiaries receiving the prescribed treatment whether single or multiple doses under the state's VBP for the NDC 9s listed. State should reflect # of beneficiaries receiving treatment over the year because the outcome and the rebate the state receives is based on a single beneficiary's outcome and not the outcome of a single prescription.
Cost to the State to Administer VBP (Estimated to the nearest dollar. States may approximate the amount of administrative costs for a single administrative contract used for multiple arrangements.)	Calculated as the estimated administrative costs to the state to enter into and administer each VBP arrangement. Examples of administrative costs states may incur: The costs applicable to negotiating the contract, the applicable cost of collecting data, the applicable cost of a contract with a fiscal agent to develop, invoice and collect rebates, applicable costs to entities collecting and verification of patient or population data, state cost of filling out this survey. For reporting purposes states can consolidate its administrative, and if applicable, clinical costs associated with the VBP arrangement. States do not need to determine the precise cost of administering each contract and may estimate the percentage of time its state employees dedicated to VBP arrangements in comparison to the rest of their duties for this data element. Approximating % of FTE salary dedicated to VBP contracts/# VBP arrangements the state employee oversees would be appropriate. For example - employee's annual salary is $60,000 and spends 10% of their time on VBP arrangement negotiation and administration. The state has 6 VBP contracts the employee sees. Therefore, for each VBP contract the state has estimated a $1000 cost associated with operating the contract. *We understand that there may be start-up costs only reflected in the first year.
Total Revenue received by supplemental rebate under VBP by end of calendar year	This should field should only include rebate revenue generated by the VBP arrangement.
Total Savings generated by the supplemental rebate due to VBP (Estimated to the nearest dollar)	This field is populated via formula.
Annual report due	The period for the VBP reporting will be on CY. Therefore, the first reporting period will include VBP arrangements in effect during CY 2022 (1/1/2022 through 12/31/22). The submission of reports for the CY 22 will take place 60 days after the end of CY or March 1, 2023. If the state needs to update the report with additional (lagged) information after the 60 day cut off, the state may resubmit the report with the updated information.
