

Issuance of, Prepayment of, or material changes to Subordinated Debt After-the-Fact Notice

General Information and Instructions

Preparation and Use

This notice may be used by national banks and federal savings associations (collectively, banks, or individually, bank or applicant). This notice informs the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency (OCC) that a national bank has issued a subordinated debt note, notification that the subordinated debt qualifies as tier 2 capital, has pre-paid or completed material changes to subordinated note under 12 CFR 5.47. An eligible federal savings association must submit this notice to inform the OCC that it has issued, or intends to issue, subordinated debt to be included in tier 2 capital under 12 CFR 5.56.

All questions must be answered with complete and accurate information that is subject to verification. If the answer is “none,” “not applicable,” or “unknown,” so state. Answers of “unknown” should be explained.

The questions in the notice are not intended to limit the applicant's presentation nor are the questions intended to duplicate information supplied on another form or in an exhibit. For such information, a cross-reference to the information is acceptable. Any cross-reference must be made to a specific citation or location in the documents, so the information can be found easily. Supporting information for all relevant factors, setting forth the basis for the applicant's conclusions, should accompany the notice. The OCC may request additional information.

This notice form collects information that the OCC will need to evaluate the reason for, and the impact of, an issuance of, prepayment of, or to material changes of subordinated debt. The OCC must consider the applicable regulatory requirements set forth above when acting on this notice. For additional information regarding the regulatory requirements, as well as processing procedures and guidelines and any supplemental information that may be required, refer to the OCC's procedural guidelines in the Comptroller's Licensing Manual. The applicant may contact the OCC directly for specific instructions or visit the OCC's Web site at www.occ.gov.

Submission

In addition to an original notice and the appropriate number of signed copies, submit an electronic copy of the information in the notice, especially of the business plan's financial projections, if applicable. For e-mail submissions, contact the OCC for instructions and information about secure transmission of confidential material.

Required filings Contact the OCC for instructions and information about submission of filings through the CATS system. Some forms can be completed online, while other forms and supporting documents may be completed offline and uploaded individually. All forms must be submitted through the OCC's electronic filing system, called the Central Application Tracking System (CATS), which allows applicants to complete and submit certain filings online. Some forms can be also

Confidentiality

Any applicant desiring confidential treatment of specific portions of the notice must submit a request in writing with the notice. The request must discuss the justification for the requested treatment. The applicant's reasons for requesting confidentiality should specifically demonstrate the harm (for example, loss of competitive position, invasion of privacy) that would result from public release of information (5 USC 552 or relevant state law). Information for which confidential treatment is requested should be (1) specifically identified in the public portion of the notice (by reference to the confidential section); (2) separately bound; and (3) labeled “Confidential.” The applicant should follow the same procedure when requesting confidential treatment for the subsequent filing of supplemental information to the notice. Contact the OCC for any further questions regarding requests for confidential treatment.
