

Instructions: Use this sheet to designate a primary and optional secondary contact to receive notices. Do not use a distribution list that contains multiple people. The Super Emitter Program will accept responses from responsible officials instead using the next sheet. Identify the facility using latitude and longitude and applicable ID, such as API well ID or EPA identifier. The EPA is not planning to include phone numbers for text messages, write "Y", "Yes" or "X".

Primary Contact Name   Primary e-mail   Primary phone (inc Area code)   Text Capable?

tifications if a super emission event is detected at a given facility, such as an oil well or compressor st nses from the primary and secondary contacts as responsible officials, although the owner/operator ongitude (North American Datum 1983) or an attached geographic file in .shp or .kml format. Identif contacts in the initial version of the Super Emitter Program Portal but may do so later. If a phone is ca

Secondary Contact N Secondary e-mail      Secondary phone (inc Area code)      Text Capable?

ation. You may choose to may choose to have other y the facility with a name able of receiving text

Please fill in all applicable API and EPA Identifiers

Facility N	Type	API # (If apFRS	CEDRI	TRI	RMP	ICIS-Air	GHGRP
------------	------	-----------------	-------	-----	-----	----------	-------

Provide geographic data in either by (A) fill in latitude and longitude in decimal degrees (precise to at least 4 decimal places) in the North American Datum of 1983 OR (B) uploading a .shp or .kml file and identify both the filename and the identifier (placemark name for .kml or record numbers for .shp). Leave placemark and record numbers blank if the points of contact apply to every point/polyline/polygon in the file.

Latitude ( Longitude (Decimal DFile name |Placemark Record Number StaRecord Number (End)

Instructions: Use this sheet to designate personnel other than the primary and secondary contact who are authorized address. An owner/operator may designate a contracted company or person to respond on their behalf. Use the colu addresses, such as firstlast@example.com or last.first@epa.gov, to respond.

Authorized Responsible Official Name to respond to super emitter events as responsible officials, based on name and e-mail column on the left to list the name and the column on the right to designate specific e-mail

Authorized Responsible Official e-mail addresses

Instructions: Use this sheet to designate additional personnel beyond the primary and secondary contacts who are authorized based on e-mail address. An owner/operator may designate a contracted company or person to respond on their behalf, such as example.com or epa.gov, to respond if, for instance, a distribution list is listed to receive notifications or if neither

Authorized Domain Names