

SUPPORTING STATEMENT - PART A

Transitional Compensation for Abused Dependents – 0704-0578

1. Need for the Information Collection

DoD Instruction 1342.24, “Transitional Compensation (TC) for Abused Dependents” establishes policy in accordance with section 1059 of title 10, U.S.C., “Dependents of members separated for dependent abuse: transitional compensation; commissary and exchange benefits; lodging expenses.” In order to validate eligibility for the benefit and to ensure payment to the appropriate claimant, the Services obtain information from the abused dependents or their legal representative. This includes personal identifiable information (PII) such as name, social security numbers, dates of birth, etc. In order to collect this information, DoDI 1342.24 directs the Service representatives to use DD Form 2698, “Application for Transitional Compensation.”

2. Use of the Information

The potential claimant travels to the office of the Service representative at the closest military installation. The Service representative provides the potential claimant with a blank hard-copy DD Form 2698 to ensure they meet the eligibility requirements for the pay, identify the number of dependent children in the payee’s custody, and to obtain the current address of the eligible dependent(s) or their legal representative. The claimant will complete Section I and the Service representative will complete Sections II and III of DD Form 2698. The form is then scanned and sent electronically via secure email to DFAS to complete Section IV of DD Form 2698. Once confirmation of eligibility is made by DFAS, the claimant will begin receiving benefits. All records, both electronic and hard-copy, are filed/stored on a secure database and/or in a secure workspace in accordance with Department of Defense records management protocol.

3. Use of Information Technology

Although the form is available online electronically, the information from the claimant is collected on a hard-copy DD Form 2698, then electronically completed by the Service representative and submitted to DFAS via secure email. The personnel and pay systems for the Military Services and DFAS are not integrated and much of the information required to verify eligibility for a dependent of a military service member would not be available through a single Departmental personnel and pay system. Additionally, eligible claimants are military dependents (or former dependents) and few have the ability to digitally sign and submit an electronic form. Therefore, the information collected and the signature of the claimant is only available via hard-copy of DD Form 2698.

4. Non-duplication

The information obtained through this collection is unique and is not already available for use or adaptation from another cleared source.

5. Burden on Small Businesses

This information collection does not impose a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small businesses or entities.

6. Less Frequent Collection

This information is collected one time by the abused dependent in order to begin receiving the benefit.

7. Paperwork Reduction Act Guidelines

This collection of information does not require collection to be conducted in a manner inconsistent with the guidelines delineated in 5 CFR 1320.5(d)(2).
