

Acknowledgment of Deactivation/Removal

Instructions: The ATF special agent (SA) or ATF task force officer (TFO) serving as the primary handler for a confidential informant (CI) must ensure completion of this form when deactivating a CI or removing a CI for cause. Accompanied by at least one other law enforcement officer (LEO), the primary handler must meet with the CI to clearly convey that he/she is no longer an active CI and to obtain the CI's current contact information. This form must be attached to the Deactivation Request and Removal for Cause Request. A decision may be made to delay notifying the CI of his/her deactivation or removal for cause when notification may jeopardize an ongoing investigation or prosecution. The decision to delay notification, and the reason(s) supporting it, must be documented during the deactivation or removal for cause process and maintained in the CI's record.

Privacy Notice

Authority. ATF derives its authority to collect this information from 28 U.S.C. § 599A, Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives, and 28 CFR § 0.130, General functions.

Purpose. ATF will use this information to document a confidential informant's acknowledgment of their deactivation/removal and update their contact information.

Routine Uses. The information will be used by ATF personnel for the purposes stated above. The information becomes a part of the confidential informant record and is included in Criminal Investigation Report System-Justice/ATF-003 (68FR 3553-5) and is subject to paragraphs A., C., E., F., and M. of the published routine uses of that system of records. ATF may disclose the information with other law enforcement or other government agencies, as necessary for criminal investigation and/or litigation purposes.

Disclosure. Furnishing this information is voluntary; however, failure to furnish the requested information will not affect ATF's decision to deactivate/remove this individual as a confidential informant.

Aviso de Privacidad

Autoridad. La ATF deriva su autoridad para recopilar esta información de 28 U.S.C. § 599A. Oficina de Alcohol, Tabaco, Armas de Fuego y Explosivos, 28 CFR § 0.130, Funciones generales.

Objetivo. La ATF utilizará esta información para documentar el reconocimiento de un informante confidencial de su desactivación/eliminación y actualizar su información de contacto.

Usos Rutinarios. La información será utilizada por el personal de la ATF para los fines indicados anteriormente. La información pasa a formar parte del registro de informante confidencial y se incluye en el Sistema de Informe de Investigación Criminal-Justicia/ATF-003 (68 FR 3553-5) y está sujeta a los párrafos A., C., E., F., y M. de los usos rutinarios publicados de ese sistema de registros. La ATF puede divulgar la información a otras agencias policiales u otras agencias gubernamentales, según sea necesario para fines de investigación criminal y/o litigio.

Divulgación. Proporcionar esta información es voluntario; sin embargo, no proporcionar la información solicitada no afectará la decisión de la ATF de desactivar/eliminar a esta persona como informante confidencial.
