- A carrier subject to section 214 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.
- An operator of broadcast or other radio facilities, licensed under Title III of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, capable of causing harmful interference with the radio transmissions of other countries.
- A non-carrier provider of services classed as "enhanced" under section 64.702(a) of the Commission's rules.
- *9. The Applicant has attached a statement indicating that the services for which designation as a ROA is sought will be extended to a point outside the United States or are capable of causing harmful interference of other radio transmission and a statement of the nature of the services to be provided.
- *10. The Applicant has attached a statement setting forth the points between which the services are to be provided.
- *11. The Applicant has attached a statement as to whether covered services are provided by facilities owned by the Applicant, by facilities leased from another entity, or other arrangement and a description of the arrangement.
- *12. The Applicant certifies that it is aware that it is bound by all laws and obligations of the United States, including that it is obligated under Article 6 of the International Telecommunication Union (ITU) Constitution to obey the mandatory provisions thereof, and all regulations promulgated thereunder. The Applicant pledges that it will engage in no conduct or operations that contravene such mandatory provisions and that it will otherwise obey the Convention and regulations in all respects. The Applicant is aware that failure to comply will result in an order from the Federal Communications Commission to cease and desist from future violations of an ITU regulation and may result in revocation of its recognized operating agency status by the United States Department of State.
