Self-Regulatory Organizations; Options Clearing Corporation; Notice of Designation of Longer Period for Commission Action on Proceedings To Determine Whether To Approve or Disapprove a Proposed Rule Change by The Options Clearing Corporation Concerning Its Process for Adjusting Certain Parameters in Its Proprietary System for Calculating Margin Requirements During Periods When the Products It Clears and the Markets It Serves Experience High Volatility

July 18, 2024.

On January 10, 2024, the Options Clearing Corporation (“OCC”) filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“Commission”) the proposed rule change SR-OCC-2024-001 pursuant to Section 19(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (“Exchange Act”)<sup>1</sup> and Rule 19b-4<sup>2</sup> thereunder to codify OCC’s process for adjusting certain parameters in its proprietary system for calculating margin requirements during periods when the products OCC clears and the markets it serves experience high volatility.<sup>3</sup> The proposed rule change was published for public comment in the Federal Register on January 25, 2024.<sup>4</sup> The Commission has received comments regarding the proposed rule change.<sup>5</sup>

On February 23, 2024, pursuant to Section 19(b)(2) of the Exchange Act,<sup>6</sup> the Commission designated a longer period within which to approve, disapprove, or institute proceedings to determine whether to approve or disapprove the proposed rule change.<sup>7</sup> On April 22, 2024, the Commission instituted proceedings, pursuant to Section 19(b)(2)(B) of the Exchange Act,<sup>8</sup> to determine whether to approve or disapprove the proposed rule change.<sup>9</sup>

Section 19(b)(2) of the Exchange Act<sup>10</sup> provides that proceedings to determine whether to approve or disapprove a proposed rule change must be concluded within 180 days of the date of publication of notice of filing of the proposed rule change. The time for conclusion of the proceedings may be extended for up to 60 days if the Commission determines that a longer period is appropriate and publishes the reasons for such determination.<sup>11</sup> The 180th day after publication of the Notice in the Federal Register is July 23, 2024.

The Commission is extending the period for Commission action on the proposed rule change. The Commission finds that it is appropriate to designate a longer period within which to take action on the proposed rule change so that the Commission has sufficient time to consider the issues raised by the information so that employers can make fully informed employment decisions; and (iii) deter persons with criminal records from seeking employment or association with covered entities. The rule enables the Commission or other examining authority to ascertain whether all required persons are being fingerprinted and whether proper procedures regarding fingerprinting are being followed. Retention of these records for a period of not less than three years after termination of a covered person's employment or relationship with a covered entity ensures that law enforcement officials will have easy access to fingerprint cards on a timely basis. This in turn acts as an effective deterrent to employee misconduct.

Approximately 3,800 respondents are subject to the recordkeeping requirements of the rule. Each respondent maintains approximately 68 new records per year, each of which takes approximately 2 minutes per record to maintain, for an annual burden of approximately 2.2666667 hours (68 records times 2 minutes). The total annual time burden for all respondents is approximately 8,613 hours (3,800 respondents times 2.2666667 hours). As noted above, all records maintained subject to the rule must be retained for a period of not less than three years after termination of a covered person's employment or relationship with a covered entity. In addition, we estimate the total annual cost burden to respondents is approximately $38,000 in third party storage costs.

Written comments are invited on: (a) whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the Commission, including whether the information shall have practical utility; (b) the accuracy of the Commission's estimates of the burden of the proposed collection of information; (c) ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information collected; and (d) ways to minimize the burden of the collection of information on respondents, including through the use of automated collection techniques or other forms of information technology. Consideration will be given to comments and suggestions submitted by September 23, 2024.

An agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information under the PRA unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number.

July 18, 2024.

The Exchange has prepared summaries, set forth in sections A, B, and C below, of the most significant aspects of such statements.

A. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

1. Purpose

Pursuant to Exchange Rule 14.12(h), Companies<sup>3</sup> may seek review of a determination by the Exchange's Listing Qualifications Department<sup>4</sup> to deny initial or delisting a Company's securities or to issue a Public Reprimand Letter,<sup>5</sup> by requesting a hearing before an independent Hearings Panel (the "Hearings Panel").<sup>6</sup> Exchange Rule 14.12(h)(1)(C) provides that a Company requesting a hearing must, within 15 calendar days of the Staff Delisting Determination,<sup>7</sup> must submit a hearing fee. Hearing fees are currently charged as follows: (i) when the Company has requested a written hearing, $1,000; or (ii) when the Company has requested an oral hearing, whether in person or by telephone, $5,000. Companies may also appeal a Hearings Panel decision to the Exchange Listing Council.<sup>8</sup> Exchange Rule 14.12(i)(1) requires a Company seeking such an appeal to submit a fee of $4,000. The Exchange has not amended these fees since the Exchange listing rules were originally adopted in 2011.<sup>9</sup> The Exchange now proposes to (i) increase the hearing fee for both written and oral hearings to $20,000; and (ii) increase the fee to appeal a Hearings Panel decision
