I-539, Application To Extend/Change Nonimmigrant Status

Currently, you may file an Application to Extend/Change Nonimmigrant Status (I-539) online if you are filing for yourself.

You should refer to Instructions for Form I-539 to see if you can use this online form for your nonimmigrant status.

Online filing is only available for certain applicants

At this time, you cannot file online if you:

- Have additional applicants
- Have an A, G, NATO, V, T, or U nonimmigrant status

You must file a paper Form I-539 offline.

Before You Start Your Application

Eligibility

You may be eligible to apply for an extension of your authorized stay if:

- You were lawfully admitted into the United States with a nonimmigrant visa
- Your nonimmigrant visa status remains valid
- You have not committed any crimes that make you ineligible for a visa
- You have not violated the conditions of your admission
- Your passport is valid and will remain valid for the duration of your stay

If your nonimmigrant status is based on the fact that you are a family member or dependent of an individual who has already been granted nonimmigrant status, then you must file your application while that individual continues to maintain a valid nonimmigrant status. Family members and dependents are limited to the same period of authorized stay as the principal immigrant.

You may NOT be granted an extension or change of status if you were admitted under the Visa Waiver Program or if your current status is:

- An alien in transit (C) or in transit without a visa (TWOV)
- A crewman (D)
- A fiancé(e) or dependent of a fiancé(e) (K-1 or K-2)

Exception: A K-3 and K-4 are eligible to apply for an extension of status. They should file for an extension during the processing of Form I-130 filed on their behalf and up to completion of their adjustment-of-status application.

You may include your spouse and your unmarried children under 21 years of age as co-applicants in your application for the same extension or change of status, but only if you are all now in the same status or they are all in derivative status.

Note: Extensions granted to members of a family group must be for the same period of time. The shortest period granted to any member of the family shall be granted to all members of the family.

Note: You can file Form I-907, Request for Premium Processing Service, if you are filing Form I-539 for a nonimmigrant classification that is eligible for premium processing. If you request premium processing, we will present Form I-907 for you to complete after you sign Form I-539. This will allow you to pay for and submit both forms at the same time.

Fee

The application fee is $370. An additional biometrics services fee of $85 is required for you and for each person included on a Form I-539A.

Refund policy: USCIS does not refund fees, regardless of any action we take on your application, petition, or request, or how long USCIS takes to reach a decision. By continuing this transaction, you acknowledge that you must submit fees in the exact amount and that you are paying the fees for a government service.

Please refer to the instructions for the form(s) you are filing for additional information or you may call the USCIS Contact Center at 800-375-5283. For TTY (deaf or hard of hearing) 800-767-1833.

We will automatically calculate the cost for you when you submit your application, including any exceptions to the fees that may apply in your case.

Learn more about filing a fee waiver.

Fee Exceptions

The following nonimmigrants are not required to submit the biometric services fee for either themselves or any dependents included on Form I-539A:

1. Individuals changing to H-4, L-2 or E nonimmigrant status;
2. Individuals extending H-4, L-2 or E nonimmigrant status

This exception will apply to applications filed through Sept. 30, 2023, subject to extensions as announced on the USCIS website.

Documents you may need

Most applicants will be required to submit:

- Nonimmigrant Arrival-Departure Record (I-94) for all applicants
- Passport and travel document numbers
- A valid passport

Several other documents will be required depending on your current nonimmigrant status.

We will automatically determine which documents you should provide us as you fill out your application. At the time of filing, you must submit all evidence and supporting documentation listed.

After You Submit Your Application

Track your case online

After you submit your form, you can track its status through your USCIS account. Sign into your account often to check your case status and read any important messages from USCIS.

Respond to requests for information

If we need more information from you, we will send you a Request for Evidence (RFE) or Request for Information (RFI). You can respond to our request and upload your documents through your USCIS account.

Provide your biometrics

We will contact you to schedule an appointment at an Application Support Center near you. At the appointment, we will get your fingerprints, photograph, and signature.

Agency verification methods may include, but are not limited to: review of public records and information; contact through written correspondence, the internet, fax, other electronic transmission, or telephone; unannounced physical site inspections of residences and locations of employment; and interviews. USCIS will use information obtained through verification to assess your compliance with the laws and to determine your eligibility for an immigration benefit.

Subject to the restrictions under 8 CFR 103.2(b)(16), USCIS will provide you with an opportunity to address any adverse or derogatory information that may result from a USCIS compliance review, verification, or site visit after a formal decision is made on your case or after the agency has initiated an adverse action which may result in revocation or termination of an approval.
