If the individual making the request is unable to produce satisfactory evidence of identity, the individual making the request may be required by the Privacy Act Officer to submit a notarized statement attesting to his identity and his understanding of the criminal penalties provided under Section 1001 of Title 18 of the United States Code for making false statement to a Government agency and under subsection (i)(3) of the Act for obtaining records under false pretenses.

Section 5 USC 55a (i) – Criminal Penalties:

- 1) Any officer or employee of an agency, who by virtue of his employment or official position, has possession of, or access to, agency records which contain individually identifiable information the disclosure of which is prohibited by this section or by rules or regulations established there under, and who knowing that disclosure of this specific materials is so prohibited, willfully discloses the material in any manner to any person or agency not entitled to receive it, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and fined not more than $5,000.
- 2) Any officer or employee of any agency who willfully maintains a System of Records without meeting the notice requirements of subsection (e) (4) of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and fined not more than $5,000.
- 3) Any person who knowingly and willfully requests or obtains any record concerning an individual from an agency under false pretenses shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and fined not more than $5,000.

Other Penalties:

A person who falsely or fraudulently attempts to obtain records under the Privacy Act, Title 5 U.S.C. Section 55a, may also be subject to prosecution under other criminal statutes such as 18 U.S.C. 494, 495, and 1001.

OMB Disclosure Statement

This data is being collected to comply with the mandatory OMB M-21-04 templates for individuals to submit requests for accessing and consenting to the disclosure of records protected under the Privacy Act of 1974, as amended, 5 U.S.C. 552a. The data you supply will be used for the search of records pertaining to a specific individual when a Privacy Act information request is submitted by that individual or by an authorized representative on behalf of that individual.

Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average .33 hours per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden, to Office of the Chief Information Officer, Enterprise Policy Development & Implementation Office, IM-22, Information Collection Management Program (1910-1700), U.S. Department of Energy, 1000 Independence Ave SW, Washington, DC 20585; and to the Office of Management and Budget (OMB), OIRA, Paperwork Reduction Program (1910-1700), Washington, DC 20503.

Notwithstanding any other provision of the law, no person is required to respond to, nor shall any person be subject to a penalty for failure to comply with a collection of information subject to the requirements of the Paperwork Reduction Act unless that collection of information displays a currently valid OMB control number. Submission of this data is voluntary.
