

Instructions for Application to Modify International
Section 214 Authorization
Office of International Affairs

ITC-MOD

Purpose of Form

This form is used to modify an international section 214 authorization. Reasons for modifying an authorization may include adding a new service type, for example adding facilities-based service to an authorization for resale service; adding or removing a condition on the authorization; and modifying the regulatory classification of the authorization holder (carrier) under section 63.13 of the Commission's rules. 47 CFR § 63.13.

Who Must File This Form and When

An international section 214 authorization holder must file a request to modify its authorization(s) using this form.

Description of Form

The Application will allow the Applicant to modify information previously provided for its international section 214 authorization and provide an explanation of the requested modification. This form consists of a main form and the ability to file an attachment to support the request. The Applicant is encouraged to upload a single document in machine readable format, including all required information. The Applicant must fill in all required fields, upload required documents, make all required certifications, and sign the form before submitting the application.

Information Current and Complete

Information filed in the application with the Commission must be kept current and complete under section 1.65 of the Commission's rules. Section 63.50 of the Commission's rules permits the applicant or the party to the application as a matter of right to amend any application prior to the date of any final action taken by the Commission and requires the Applicant to notify the Commission regarding any substantial and significant changes in the information provided in the application while it remains pending. 47 CFR § 63.50.

To amend a submitted application, use a separate form, ITC-AMD.

Applicable Rules and Regulations

August 2024

Section 63.18 of the Commission's rules set out the application requirements for international section 214 authorization, 47 CFR § 63.18. Section 63.13 sets out the procedures to modifying the regulatory classification of an authorization holder.

Any party that desires to modify its regulatory status from dominant to non-dominant for the provision of particular international communications services on a particular route should provide information in its application to demonstrate that it qualifies for non-dominant classification pursuant to § 63.10. 47 CFR § 63.13.

Applicant(s) should refer to the Debt Collection Improvement Act of 1996. The Debt Collection Act requires all federal agencies ensure that no debtors to the Federal government obtain any licenses or other benefits from the FCC. To ensure this, the Commission must collect FRN information to correlate its Applicants with any outstanding Federal debt that they might have incurred in other dealings with the Federal government. For additional information, press on the FCC's Debt Collection webpage, <https://www.fcc.gov/licensing-databases/fees/debt-collection-improvement-act-implementation>

FILING INSTRUCTIONS

Remember to save your draft application periodically by clicking the save button. ICFS will time-out out after 15 minutes of no activity, and failure to save will result in loss of any information entered into the application form after the last save.

Item A.1. The file number for the international section 214 authorization that is being modified will be pre-populated here, based on the authorization that you selected for modification.

Item A.2. The Applicant must check the box to acknowledge that it has attached a narrative statement describing the modifications to the authorization being made in this application. The Applicant must also upload an attachment that describes the changes being made to the underlying authorization. For example, state “This is an application to modify ITC-214-xxxxxxx-xxxxx to add global facilities-based service.” _

Note: The remainder of the modification application form will look the same as the form for the original application that the Applicant is modifying, and it will be pre-populated with all the information that the Applicant previously provided for the questions in the underlying application, with the following exceptions that will be blank in the modification application and will need to be completed: (1) the application description question, (2) the application fee section, (3) the General Certification Statements section, and (4) the signature block.

For example, if the Applicant is modifying an authorization, ICFS will display the underlying ITC-214 (or ITC-MOD) application that the Applicant previously filed, with all the fields populated as originally submitted (with the exceptions noted above). The Applicant should change any information that it needs to, and/or upload any new or revised attachments._

Note: For international 214 authorizations that were filed prior to August 19, 2024, ICFS will not have an application that can be pre-populated and the Applicant will have to fill out all of the information in the form.
