Topic of study

Describe briefly the work that you did during your fellowship.

How did your work compare with what you had originally planned to accomplish?

Assess the major benefits of your fellowship tenure and describe any major problems or difficulties that detracted from its value to you.

What scholarly work, either already published or likely to be published, owes something to your NEH fellowship?

Please comment on the quality and scope of the resources, facilities, and services the center made available to you and other fellows. For Fellows at Residential Centers: How substantial was the intellectual exchange among fellows? Which programs at the center contributed to the collegial association of fellows? How important was your presence at the center for the success of your research? For Fellows at non-Residential Centers or Organizations: What assistance did you receive regarding travel, housing, local contacts and introductions, programs, and other forms of support during your fellowship?

Was the stipend you received sufficient? If necessary, were you able to find additional support from your institution or other sources?

Was the term of your fellowship adequate to accomplish the research you proposed to do? Please explain.

What effects do you expect your fellowship to have on your teaching and your career?

How did you learn of the center's or organization's fellowship program?

Did the center inform you of your Rights and Responsibilities as an NEH Fellow?
