

Feedback Form Redistricting Data Program

The Census Bureau is adding a feedback component to its geographic partnership programs to allow for the solicitation of feedback to improve the administration of the respective program and potentially reduce the future burden. Liaisons may be asked to provide their feedback on materials, method(s) of data collection, manner of communications, and the usability of the program applications and tools. For the Redistricting Data Program, the feedback component may apply to all 52 eligible respondents.

1. How did you participate in the Post-2020 Census Collection of Congressional and State Legislative District Plans? (Check all that apply)

Did Not Participate/
No Change GUPS Standalone GUPS Web Block Equivalency File

Regardless of how you participated, do you have any recommended changes to GUPS Standalone or GUPS Web or feedback on the participation process?

2. How did you participate in the Block Boundary Suggestion Project? (Check all that apply)

Did Not Participate GUPS Standalone GUPS Web Our Own GIS

Regardless of how you participated, do you have any recommended changes to GUPS Standalone or GUPS Web or feedback on the participation process?

3. Was the quality and quantity of support material and activities (e.g., guides, quick starts, training sessions) sufficient for the work that needed to be accomplished?

Yes No

Do you have feedback on how to improve the support materials and activities?

4. Was the communication with the Redistricting and Voting rights Data Office useful, timely, and relevant?

Yes No

Do you have feedback on how communication can be improved?

The Census Bureau estimates that participating in the feedback component of the Redistricting Data Program will take 1 hour on average. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden, using Paperwork Reduction Project 0607-0988 as the subject, to <rdo@census.gov>. This collection has been approved by the Office of Management and Budget (OMB). The eight-digit OMB approval number confirms this approval. If this number were not displayed, we could not conduct this component of the survey. The Census Bureau conducts this program under the legal authority of Public Law 94-171, as amended (Title 13 United States Code (U.S.C.), Section 141(c)).