The net value of the home is the appraised value of the home, minus the sum of all loans secured by a mortgage, trust deed, or other lien on the home. If you list the net value of the beneficiary's home, then you must include documentation demonstrating that the beneficiary owns the home, a recent appraisal by a licensed appraiser, and evidence of the amount of all loans secured by a mortgage, trust deed, or other lien on the home.
You may not include the net value of the beneficiary's automobile unless the beneficiary has more than one automobile, and at least one automobile is not included as an asset. Submit evidence of the value of the assets listed. Evidence must include the name of the asset holder, a description of the asset, proof of ownership, and the basis for the owner's claim of its net cash value.
Attach evidence in the "Evidence" section under "Proof of beneficiary's assets" and "Bonds" showing that the beneficiary has these assets.
