UFLPA Applicability Review

You are about to submit an applicability review request, prior to your submission, please ensure you have consulted the Strategy to Prevent the Importation of Goods Mined, Produced, or Manufactured with Forced Labor in the People's Republic of China, June 17, 2022 (DHS UFLPA Strategy) and be prepared to provide documents outlined in Section VI (B) of the DHS UFLPA Strategy which includes documentation demonstrating goods were not mined, produced, or manufactured, wholly or in part, in Xinjiang.

REQUEST UFLPA APPLICABILITY REVIEW

CAATSA Exception

CAATSA Title III, Section 321(b) (22 U.S.C. § 9241a), created a rebuttable presumption that goods made or mined wholly or in part by North Korean nationals or North Korean citizens anywhere in the world are forced-labor goods prohibited under the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. § 1307). These goods are not entitled entry at any of the Ports in the United States, and may be subject to detention, seizure, and forfeiture.

Importer may overcome this presumption with "clear and convincing evidence." Importers have the responsibility to exercise reasonable care and provide CBP with such information as is necessary to enable CBP to determine if the merchandise may be released from CBP custody.
