

Survey on Respect, Diversity, and Inclusion in the Office of Acquisition and Assistance (OAA) Worldwide

The issues of respect, diversity, and inclusion continue to be at the forefront of the USAID's conversation regarding who we are as an agency. The OAA Diversity Advisory Council (DAC) is looking to conduct market research that will be compared to the results of its 2020 Diversity Survey.

PRIVACY ACT STATEMENT

Authority: 22 U.S.C. § 2651; 5 U.S.C. § 301; and 5 U.S.C. § 5379

Purpose: The purpose of this survey is to do the following:

- 1 - Conduct market research that will be used to better understand the current situation in our work environment in order to develop recommendations for OAA's senior management.
- 2 - Conduct a comparative analysis to determine the impact of OAA leadership community attempted to implement policies or decision making actions that address the issues identified in the previous survey.

Disclosure: Completing this survey and/or providing personal demographic data are voluntary. We are collecting demographic data to help us develop better recommendations.

Routine Uses: The DAC's recommendations will focus on areas where changes in processes, behaviors, and/or redefining what is acceptable can lead to a better work environment for all staff members. The data collected by the DAC will be used to help the DAC develop better recommendations.

We would greatly appreciate your help in this effort. Write as much or as little as you wish. Please do not enter any unsolicited personally identifying information for yourself or others in your responses.

Relationships, Diversity, and Inclusion within OAA

These questions are both multiple choice and free form text boxes. They can be difficult issues to capture into words. We ask that you express yourself in the manner that best suits you. Please consider both your relationships and interactions with fellow OAA staff members and also as an Acquisition and Assistance (A&A) professional dealing with other development professionals. We ask that if an identified issue is related to a specific group (senior managers, technical staff, FSNs, FSOs, etc), then please be clear.

- 5. My ethnicity/race/nationality/gender/orientation (i.e., Not performance related issues) plays a role in my career opportunities and advancement in OAA. (Strongly disagree means that it does not play a role.)
