

SNAP-Ed Evidence-based Interventions Survey on MyPlate Materials

The United States Department of Agriculture (USDA), Food and Nutrition Service (FNS) is collecting information on the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program Education (SNAP-Ed) evidence-based interventions housed on the SNAP-Ed Connection Clearinghouse (formerly from the SNAP-Ed Toolkit). This voluntary collection is meant to gather details on intervention materials in SNAP-Ed Connection Clearinghouse (<https://snaped.fns.usda.gov/administration/evidence-based-SNAP-Ed-interventions>) that include MyPlate-related images, resources and/or information. FNS will use this information to identify and highlight these interventions as "MyPlate-focused materials" on the SNAP-Ed Connection website.
