

NYTD Partner and Supplemental Data Survey

Goals for the Sessions

- To gather feedback from state users on survey administration and third-party partnerships.
- To understand the processes and techniques used by third-party survey administrators.
- To learn more about states that currently supplement their NYTD data with additional data elements.
- To explore the potential benefits of integrating supplemental NYTD data into current NYTD data analysis.

Survey Administration

- Email NYTD Authorized Officials to introduce survey and schedule an interview date for a zoom or phone call.
- During a second contact attempt, a link will be offered for self-administered survey.
- During the final contact attempt, a follow up phone call will be placed in an attempt to administer the survey by phone.

Introduction: 2 minutes

Introduce caller and the purpose for the call and what we hope to achieve. Additionally, we will explain the voluntary nature of this survey and notify them of survey privacy protocols.

Survey: 10-15 minutes

Provide a short survey that asks authorized official or assigned state contact for their feedback on third-party survey partners and supplemental NYTD data.

Conclusion: 2 minutes

Wrap up the session by summarizing next steps and providing interviewer contact information for additional feedback or follow up questions.
