

Justification for No-Material Change Request

Treasury is submitting a no-material change request to this emergency ICR as stipulated in Terms of Clearance below:

TERMS OF CLEARANCE: In response to the emergency request memorandum submitted by Treasury on 3/31/2022, OIRA is approving Treasury's request for emergency consideration of this ICR for a period of six months. OMB is granting this approval on the basis that Treasury will shortly submit a change request to this ICR adding to this ICR package public comment documents received by February 28, 2022, and a summary of Treasury's responses to those public comments with confidential business information redacted.
