General Instructions

Purpose of Form 2678

Use Form 2678 if you want to:

- Request approval to have an agent file returns and make deposits or payments of Federal Insurance Contributions Act (FICA) taxes, Railroad Retirement Tax Act (RRTA) taxes, income tax withholding (ITW), or backup withholding; or
- Revoke an existing appointment.

Don't use prior versions of Form 2678. All prior versions are obsolete. The IRS will not accept them.

Can Employers Appoint Agents To Report, Deposit, and Pay Federal Unemployment Tax Act (FUTA) Tax?

Generally, employers can't appoint an agent to report, deposit, and pay FUTA tax. However, if you're an employer who receives home care service, you may ask the IRS to approve an agent to act on your behalf for FUTA tax purposes. Check the box in the footnote in Part 2, line 5.

To appoint an agent to act for FUTA tax purposes, you must also appoint the agent to act for FICA taxes and ITW purposes.

Filing Form 2678

Send Form 2678 to the address for the employer's or payer's location under Where To File, later. We'll send a letter to the employer or payer and to the agent after we've approved the request. For agents of home care service recipients, we'll send the approval letter only to the agent. Generally, the processing time frame, upon receipt, is 30 days.

The authorization to act as an agent is effective on the date shown in the letter. Until we approve the request, the agent isn't liable for filing any tax returns or making any deposits or payments.

Only one signature is required to revoke an agent's appointment. If an existing appointment is revoked, the IRS can't disclose confidential tax information to anyone other than the employer or payer for periods after the appointment is revoked.

If an agent's appointment is revoked, we'll send both the employer or payer and the agent a letter confirming the revocation. For agents of home care service recipients, we'll send the letter confirming the revocation only to the agent. The revocation is effective on the date shown in the letter.

Agent Responsibilities After Appointment

Reporting, Depositing, and Payment Requirements

Agents must follow the procedures for employment taxes in Rev. Proc. 2013-39, 2013-52 I.R.B. 830, available at IRS.gov/irb/2013-52_IRB#RP-2013-39, and for backup withholding in Rev. Proc. 84-33. Agents for employers who are home care service recipients receiving home care services through a program administered by a federal, state, or local government agency may also use this form. These agents may be referred to as "fiscal/employer agents," "household employer agents," and "home care service recipient agents."

All agents, employers, and payers remain liable for filing all returns and making all tax deposits and payments while this appointment is in effect. If an agent contracts with a third party, such as a reporting agent or certified public accountant, to prepare or file the returns covered by this appointment or to make any required tax deposits or payments and the third party fails to do so, the agent, employer, and payer remain liable.

Filing Schedule R (Form 940) and Schedule R (Form 941)

An agent for a home care service recipient that files an aggregate Form 940, Employer's Annual Federal Unemployment (FUTA) Tax Return, must complete Schedule R (Form 940), Allocation Schedule for Aggregate Form 940 Filers, and file it with the aggregate Form 940.

An agent who files an aggregate Form 941, Employer's QUARTERLY Federal Tax Return, must complete Schedule R (Form 941), Allocation Schedule for Aggregate Form 941 Filers, and file it with the aggregate Form 941.

Specific Instructions

Part 1: Why You're Filing This Form

In Part 1, you'll check a box to indicate why you're filing Form 2678.

- If you're an employer or payer and you want to appoint an agent, check the box that says, "You want to appoint an agent for tax reporting, depositing, and paying."
- If you're an employer, payer, or agent and you want to revoke an existing appointment, check the box that says, "You want to revoke an existing appointment."

Part 2: Employer or Payer Information

- If you're an employer or payer, enter your employer identification number (EIN), name, trade name, and address. Generally, enter the legal name of the individual or, in the case of a business, the entity's true name (as set forth in the charter or other legal document creating it). For example, if you are a sole proprietor, enter "Jordan Smith" on the "Employer's or payer's name" line and "Jordan's Cycles" on the "Trade name" line. Leave the "Trade name" line blank if it's the same as your "Name."

Note. If the name entered on line 2 is a business and the box in the footnote in Part 2, line 5 (and/or the box below Part 3, line 9) is checked stating that you're a home care service recipient requesting approval of an agent to act on your behalf for FUTA tax purposes, the form will be rejected. An employer or payer who is a recipient receiving home health care services through a state or local program is always an individual, never a business.

- If you're an agent revoking an existing appointment, enter the EIN, name, trade name, and address of the employer or payer for whom you've been authorized to act. The employer's or payer's signature isn't required.

On line 5, check the boxes for all forms for which you want to:

- Request approval to appoint an agent to file on your behalf, or
- Revoke an agent's existing appointment.

If you're only appointing an agent for some employees, payees, or payments, check the box under For SOME employees/payees/payments.

Example 1. You're an employer. You appoint an agent to file returns and deposit FICA taxes and ITW for biweekly wage payments that you paid to your employees. However, you make bonus wage payments directly to your employees, not through the agent. You should report the bonus payments on a return filed using your EIN.

Example 2. You're an employer. You appoint an agent to file returns and deposit FICA taxes and ITW for biweekly wage payments that you paid to your employees. However, you make biweekly wage payments directly to your company's executives. You should report the wage payments to the executives on a return filed using your EIN.

If you're an employer or payer and you're requesting authorization to appoint an agent, sign and date Form 2678 in Part 2. Then give the form to the agent to complete and sign Part 3.

If you're an employer or payer and you want to revoke an existing appointment, sign and date Form 2678 in Part 2. Complete Part 3. Then send the form to the address for your location under Where To File, earlier.

Part 3: Agent Information

- If you're an employer or payer and you're requesting authorization to appoint an agent, have the agent complete and sign Part 3.
- If you're an employer or payer and you want to revoke an existing appointment, complete Part 3. The agent's signature isn't required. Then send the form to the address for your location under Where To File, earlier.
- If you want to accept an appointment as an agent or you're an agent who wants to revoke an existing appointment, complete Part 3 with your information. Then sign and date the form where indicated. Send the form to the address for the employer's or payer's location under Where To File, earlier.

Note. If an agent is a corporate officer, partner, or tax matters partner, the agent must have the authority to execute this appointment of agent.
