SUMMARY: The Central Utah Water Conservancy District intends to purchase up to 6,000 acre-feet of import water from the total quantity annually stored in Utah Lake. These return flows originate from the Bonneville Unit of the Central Utah Project.

DATES: A public meeting to negotiate a water service contract will be held at the Central Utah Water Conservancy District in Orem, Utah, at a date and time announced locally.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Additional information on matters related to this Federal Register notice can be obtained by contacting Mr. Wesley James, Program Coordinator, Central Utah Project Completion Act Office, Department of the Interior, 302 East Lakeview Parkway, Provo, Utah 84606; via telephone at (801) 379-1137; or by email at wsjames@usbr.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Public Law 102-575, Central Utah Project Completion Act, section 207, provides for minimum inflows and meets statutory and environmental requirements for Central Utah Project

CUP import water is the result of the Strawberry/Utah Lake/Jordanelle exchange, providing storage of Provo River water in Jordanelle Reservoir which otherwise would naturally flow to Utah Lake. In return for this stored water, CUP water is delivered from Strawberry Reservoir to Utah Lake as CUP import water. CUP import water stored in Utah Lake in excess of the amount required for this exchange may be available for other purposes.

Section 9(c)(2) of the 1939 Reclamation Project Act provides for the Secretary of the Department of the Interior to enter into municipal & industrial water service contracts and to set the water charge rate at what is deemed reasonable and appropriate.

In accordance with Public Law 102-575, the District intends to purchase a portion of the return flows associated with the Bonneville Unit that are stored in Utah Lake. The terms of the payment are to be publicly negotiated between the District and the Department of the Interior.

Paul Christensen,

Program Director, Central Utah Project Completion Act Office, Department of the Interior.
