Interagency Appraisal Complaint Form

OMB No. 3133-0200

Purpose: This form collects information about complaints of non-compliance with the appraisal independence standards and the Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice, including complaints from appraisers, individuals, financial institutions, and other entities.

Complaint Process: Your complaint will be reviewed by the appropriate regulator(s). Please do not submit documents with your complaint, as the regulator(s) will contact you if more information is needed. Please note the regulator(s) may not be able to provide the resolution you request because of legal and other constraints. For example, regulator(s) considering a complaint do not have jurisdiction to directly award damages, settle fee disputes, or act as your attorney or expert witness. A regulator's review of your complaint will focus on potential violations of applicable law or regulatory policy and could result in a regulator taking action(s) against the entity about which you are complaining.

Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995: The burden for this collection of information is estimated to take 30 minutes per response. This includes time for reviewing the instructions, gathering needed information, and completing and reviewing the form. An agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to a collection of information unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number. If you have comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden, send comments to: Legislative and Regulatory Activities Division, Office of the Comptroller of the Currency, Washington, DC 20219; Comments/Legal ESS, Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, 550 17th Street NW, Washington, DC 20429; NCUA PRA, National Credit Union Administration, 1775 Duke Street, Alexandria, Virginia 22314.

Privacy Notice: The information you are providing is being collected pursuant to the individual authorities of the federal financial institution regulators (12 U.S.C. §§1, 481,

1464, 1756, 1766, and 1820 in connection with a complaint made pursuant to 12 U.S.C. § 3351(i). The information provided will be used to ensure the appropriate regulator receives your complaint and by the regulator to review and respond to your complaint. In order to review and respond to your complaint, the appropriate regulator may disclose your information consistent with the routine uses listed in the regulator's respective Privacy Act statements:

NCUA's Authority

Please note, NCUA does not have the authority to resolve every type of problem that may arise with a credit union. We are unable to resolve contract disputes or undocumented factual disputes between a consumer and a credit union. In these cases, we suggest that you contact an attorney. We cannot investigate matters that are the subject of a pending lawsuit or offer legal assistance. NCUA cannot represent consumers in settling claims or recovering damages. NCUA does not own, operate, or control credit unions, nor do we establish their operating policies and procedures. We cannot dictate the range of services they offer and are unable to resolve complaints about customer service or disagreements over specific credit union policies and procedures not addressed by federal law or regulation.

Privacy

The information collected is solicited to provide NCUA with data that is necessary and useful in reviewing requests received from individuals regarding their interactions with federal and federally insured credit unions. You are not required to give us this information. However, without such information, our ability to complete a review or to provide requested assistance may be hindered. It is intended that the information you provide to us will be used within NCUA and provided to the credit union that is the subject of your complaint or inquiry. As required by law, we may make additional disclosures of such information.
