December 21, 2018

A. Section: Entry, Restart, and Exit Pages

1. Wlcm001* – Getting Ready

The screenshot shows the Social Security Administration's website for a Disability Appeal. At the top left is the SSA logo and the text 'Social Security Official Website of the U.S. Social Security Administration'. The main heading is 'Disability Appeal'. Below this, there are three main sections: 'Getting Ready', 'Submit an Appeal', and 'Follow-Up'. To the right of the 'Getting Ready' section is a 'More Information' sidebar with links to 'About this Application', 'Other Ways to Complete a Disability Appeal', 'The Appeals Process', and 'Hours of Operation'. Below the 'More Information' sidebar is a 'Your privacy is important.' notice with a link to the 'Privacy Act Statement'. At the bottom of the page, there are links for 'Privacy Policy', 'Website Policies & Other Important Information', 'About Us', and 'Site Map'.

Getting Ready

What you need to know before you begin:

1. You are only required to submit new or updated medical information since your last filing (unless noted otherwise).
2. View or print this checklist of information you will need to have on hand before beginning your online appeal.
3. At the end of your session, you will be provided with a cover sheet and instructions on how to send any additional supporting documents via US mail if needed.
4. When entering large blocks of text, be sure to click the "Save" or "Next" button to avoid being timed out after 30 minutes of typing or inactivity.
5. This appeal may take 60 minutes or longer to complete. Your answers will be saved automatically as you move from screen to screen. You will be able to return to your saved appeal by using the Re-entry Number that will be provided to you.

Being prepared will help you spend less time to complete your disability appeal online.

Submit an Appeal

Completing your appeal online may take 40 to 60 minutes. Your answers will be saved automatically so you can take a break at any time.

Start a New Appeal or Return to a Saved Appeal

Follow-Up

After you are finished, we will contact you with any updates or questions we may have about your information. The claimant can log into their my Social Security account or register for an account to check that status of their appeal.

Electronic Appeals Terms of Service

You are able to request a reconsideration or hearing with an Administrative Law Judge electronically by using this application and agreeing to the terms of service.

Note: A third party can provide this request on behalf of the claimant, but the third party must still agree to the terms below.

The Social Security Administration needs the following information to complete an electronic appeal request:

Claimant's Information

- Date on the Notice with the initial or reconsideration determination that you are appealing,
- Name,
- Social Security number,
- Date of birth,
- Mailing address, and
- Phone number.

Third Party Information, if applicable

- Representative's name,
- Address, and
- Phone number.

Medical/Other Information, if applicable (You may want to refer to your medical records and have your medicine containers available)

- Name, address, and phone number of a friend or relative who knows about your medical condition.
- Description of any change to your medical condition and any new medical conditions.
- Name, address, phone number, and visit dates of all health care providers, type of treatments, and tests since you last gave us medical evidence.
- Name of any medicine (prescription or over-the-counter) you are currently taking, why you are taking it, any side effects, and the name of the doctor who recommended or prescribed the medicine.
- Description of any change in your daily activities, work, and education.

If you do not wish to complete your appeal electronically, or you are unable to provide all of the information required for an electronic appeal within the 60-day appeal period, you may file your appeal request by mail or by visiting your local Social Security Office within this same appeal period. Visit www.ssa.gov/hlp/iappeals/other-ways.htm to learn other ways to complete your disability appeal.

I Acknowledge:

- I have 60 days to request an appeal of the determination on my claim. My 60 days starts 5 days after the date on my Notice of Disapproved Claim or Notice of Reconsideration. I can file my appeal request online, by mail, or by visiting the local Social Security office. I can visit www.ssa.gov/benefits/disability/appeal.html to find additional information about the appeal process.
- I must inform the Social Security Administration about or submit all evidence known to me that relates to whether or not I am disabled or blind.
- Evidence is anything that I submit, that anyone else submits, or that the Social Security Administration obtains that relates to my claim. Evidence includes treatment notes and medical opinions, which are statements from medical sources about what I can still do despite my impairment(s).
- If I wish to submit evidence after I have submitted my appeal request, I can use www.ssa.gov/locator to find my local Social Security office and its business hours. I understand that in order for the Social Security Administration to consider my evidence, I must submit the evidence before the Social Security Administration makes a determination or decision on my appeal request.
- Appeal Level
 - Request for Reconsideration – I understand that if I have evidence to submit, but I am not able to submit it at the time I submit my appeal request, I should write, “I have additional evidence to submit that is not electronic” in the “I do not agree with the determination made on the above claim and request reconsideration. My reasons are:” section.

If the Social Security Administration sends me a notice that requests the evidence, I understand that I have 15 days to submit it before the Social Security Administration will start to process my request for reconsideration. I understand that once the 15 days expires, I still must inform the Social Security Administration about or submit any additional evidence.
 - Request for Hearing by Administrative Law Judge – I understand that if I have additional evidence to submit, but I am not able to submit it at the time I submit my appeal request, I can indicate on my appeal request that I have more evidence and can provide the name and sources of the additional evidence. I understand that I must inform the Social Security Administration about or submit any additional evidence no later than 5 business days before the date of my hearing.

- I must select the “Submit” button within the Submit tab to file my appeal request with the Social Security Administration. If I exit the application before selecting the “Submit” button, my appeal request will not be completed or processed.
- Once I submit my appeal request electronically:
 - I will receive an on-screen confirmation that my appeal request has been submitted. I will also receive an email confirmation if an email address was provided.
 - The Social Security Administration will provide a cover sheet, which I can print and use to submit any evidence that I want the Social Security Administration to include with my appeal request.
 - If I indicated in my appeal request that I have additional evidence or the Social Security Administration needs additional information, a Social Security representative may contact me by email, phone, or mail.
- I can re-enter this application if:
 - I receive a Re-entry number;
 - I do not submit my current appeal request; and
 - My appeal period has not expired.
- I cannot re-enter this application if:
 - I do not receive a re-entry number;
 - The appeal period has expired; or
 - I already submitted an appeal request on the determination or that I am attempting to appeal.
- If I want to add additional information to or change submitted information, I will mail, fax, or deliver paper copies of my evidence to my local Social Security office.
- I can obtain a receipt for my appeal request by accessing my Social Security account at www.socialsecurity.gov/myaccount, or by contacting my local Social Security office.

I understand that I may be subject to criminal or civil penalties, or both, if I provide false or misleading statements, engage in unauthorized use of this system, or otherwise misuse this system.

Medical Release Form

In order to make a decision about your disability claim, we need to obtain your:

- Medical Records
- Education Records
- Other information related to your ability to perform tasks

We will help get required records with permission. Signing the Medical Release Form (Authorization to Disclose Information to the Social Security Administration [SSA-827]) is voluntary, but failing to sign it, or revoking it before we receive necessary information, could prevent an accurate or timely decision on the claim, and could result in denial or loss of benefits.

Please read the Medical Release Form and make a selection below.

I voluntarily authorize and request disclosure of all my medical records; also educational records and other information related to my ability to perform tasks. I agree to:

Electronically sign the Medical Release. My electronic signature is the same as my handwritten signature. (Recommended)

Print, sign and mail a paper copy of the Medical Release Form. I understand this may delay the processing of my disability claim.

1. – Checklist Help Pop-up

Information You Need to Complete Your Disability Appeal

If you recently applied for Social Security disability benefits or Supplemental Security Income and were denied for medical reasons, you may request an appeal online.

Use the checklist below to gather the information you may need to appeal our medical decision.

Note: Please print the pdf version of this page to use while you gather your materials.

1. Personal Information

- Name, Social Security number, address, and phone number.
- Date of Denial Decision.
- Representative's name, address, and phone number.

2. Medical Information

- Name, address, and phone number of a friend or relative who knows about your medical condition.
- Description of any change to your medical condition and any new medical conditions.
- Name, address, phone number, and visit dates of all health care providers, type of treatments and tests since you last gave us medical evidence.
- Name of any medicine (prescription or over-the-counter) you are currently taking, why you are taking it, any side effects, and the name of the doctor who recommended or prescribed the medicine.
- Description of any change in your daily activities, work, and education.

Note: You may want to refer to your medical records and have your medicine containers available.

2. Supporting Documents

- If you have documents that support your appeal, they will help Social Security make a decision on your claim for disability benefits. Supporting documents include any medical report, form, or written statement related to your disability.
- You will be asked if you wish to upload any supporting documents in electronic format prior to submitting your online appeal (.doc, .docx, .tif, .tiff, and .pdf are accepted).
- After you submit your appeal, we will also provide a printable cover sheet you can use to submit any additional supporting documents you may have either by postal mail or by bringing copies to your local field office.

2. – Re-entry Number Help Pop-up

The screenshot shows the Social Security Administration's 'Disability Appeal' page. At the top left is the SSA logo and the text 'Social Security Official Website of the U.S. Social Security Administration'. The main heading is 'Disability Appeal'. Below this, there are three main sections: 'Getting Ready', 'Submit an Appeal', and 'Follow-Up'. A 'More Information' sidebar is on the right. A white pop-up window titled 'Re-entry Number' is overlaid on the 'Getting Ready' section. The pop-up contains the following text: 'Once you begin an appeal, you will be given a Re-entry Number which will allow you to return to your saved appeal prior to submission. Be sure to print or copy the Re-entry Number or provide your email address to us so we can send it to you.' Below the text is a 'Close' button. The background page text is partially obscured by the pop-up.

Getting Ready

What you need to know before you begin:

1. You are only required to submit new or updated medical information since your last filing (unless noted otherwise).
2. View or print this checklist of information you will need to have on hand before beginning your online appeal.
3. At the end of the appeal, you will be asked to provide your email address to send you updates and reminders.
4. When you begin the appeal, you will be asked to provide your email address to send you updates and reminders.
5. This appeal will be processed automatically.

Being prepared will help you spend less time to complete your disability appeal online.

Submit an Appeal

Completing your appeal online may take 40 to 60 minutes. Your answers will be saved automatically so you can take a break at any time.

Start a New Appeal or Return to a Saved Appeal

Follow-Up

After you are finished, we will contact you with any updates or questions we may have about your information. The claimant can log into their my Social Security account or register for an account to check that status of their appeal.
