- (1) Whether or not the collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency, including whether or not the information will have practical utility;
- (2) The accuracy of our estimate of the burden for this collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;

(3) Ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and

(4) How might the NPS minimize the burden of the collection on the respondents, including through the use of appropriate automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology, e.g., permitting electronic submission of response.

Comments that you submit in response to this notice are a matter of public record. We will include or summarize each comment in our request to OMB to approve this ICR. Before including your address, phone number, email address, or other personal identifying information in your comment, you should be aware that your entire comment—including your personal identifying information—may be made publicly available at any time. Abstract: Authorized by the NPS Organic Act, 54 U.S.C. 100101 et seq., and Public Health Service Act, 42 U.S.C. Code chapter 6A, the NPS Office of Public Health (OPH) is called upon by NPS leadership and others to conduct disease surveillance, respond to urgent outbreaks, and prevent illnesses within or associated with national parks. In some areas of the National Park System, State and local health departments may not have jurisdiction; even where State and local health departments do have jurisdiction, they may rely on the NPS for public health response on public lands.

This collection will allow the NPS OPH to conduct epidemiological investigations in response to public health events of concern, including:

- Incidents where three or more visitors, employees, or volunteers have similar symptoms or illnesses.
- Single reports of rare or reportable diseases.
- Incidents that result in death, cause serious injury or illness, and/or lead to overnight hospitalization.
- Wildlife encounters of concern such as bites, scratches, or attacks and wildlife deaths that do not fit known patterns.
- Any additional illnesses of public health concern.

The information collected will be used to determine the agents, sources, modes of transmission, or risk factors so that effective prevention and control measures can be implemented.

Abstract: The National Park Service Organic Act, 54 U.S.C. 100101(a) et seq., requires that the NPS preserve national parks for the enjoyment, education, and inspiration of this and future generations. In order to monitor resources and bear management in areas managed by the NPS and to enhance the safety of future visitors, we are requesting to revise OMB Control Number 1024–0281 to include a new system-wide form for bear sightings and interactions by visitors in national parks.

Bear sighting data provide park managers with important information used to determine bear movements, habitat use, and species distribution. This information is important for backcountry management and planning, field research planning, and educational outreach for visitors. Bear-human interaction data is vital to understanding bear responses to people, detecting changes in bear behavior, and identifying areas of high bear-human conflict.

Obtaining immediate information on bear-human conflicts allows managers to respond promptly to mitigate further conflicts. Proactive mitigation includes notifying other backcountry users, issuing advisories or recommendations, or issuing closures to prevent further conflicts and maintain public safety.

Glacier Bay National Park and Preserve currently uses Form 10–405 “Tatshenshini—Alsek River Bear Report and Form” and Form 10–406 “Bear Information Management Report” to record bear sightings when a bear enters a camp, approaches the group, damages gear, obtains food, and/or acts in an aggressive or threatening manner towards the group. We are requesting to add a new system-wide form to this collection. Proposed form 10–407 “National Park Service Bear Sighting and Encounter Reports” will be available in any areas managed by the NPS where bear sightings may occur.

Total Estimated Number of Annual Respondents: 532.

Total Estimated Number of Annual Responses: 532.

Estimated Completion Time per Response: 5 to 7 Minutes.
