

Note: The draft you are looking for begins on the next page. Caution: DRAFT—NOT FOR FILING

This is an early release draft of an IRS tax form, instructions, or publication, which the IRS is providing for your information. Do not file draft forms and do not rely on draft forms, instructions, and pubs for filing. We incorporate all significant changes to forms posted with this coversheet. However, unexpected issues occasionally arise, or legislation is passed—in this case, we will post a new draft of the form to alert users that changes were made to the previously posted draft. Thus, there are never any changes to the last posted draft of a form and the final revision of the form. Forms and instructions are subject to OMB approval before they can be officially released, so we post drafts of them until they are approved. Drafts of instructions and pubs usually have some additional changes before their final release. Early release drafts are at IRS.gov/DraftForms and remain there after the final release is posted at IRS.gov/LatestForms. Also see IRS.gov/Forms.

Most forms and publications have a page on IRS.gov: IRS.gov/Form1040 for Form 1040; IRS.gov/Pub501 for Pub. 501; IRS.gov/W4 for Form W-4; and IRS.gov/ScheduleA for Schedule A (Form 1040), for example, and similarly for other forms, pubs, and schedules for Form 1040. When typing in a link, type it into the address bar of your browser, not a Search box on IRS.gov.

If you wish, you can submit comments to the IRS about draft or final forms, instructions, or pubs at IRS.gov/FormsComments. Include "NTF" followed by the form or pub number (for example, "NTF1040", "NTFW4", "NTF501", etc.) in the body of the message to route your message properly. We cannot respond to all comments due to the high volume we receive and may not be able to consider many suggestions until the subsequent revision of the product, but we will review each "NTF" message. If you have comments on reducing paperwork and respondent (filer) burden, with respect to draft or final forms, please respond to the relevant information collection through the Federal Register process; for more info, click here.

Future Developments

For the latest developments related to Schedule LEP, see www.irs.gov/ScheduleLEP.

Purpose of Form

The IRS is committed to providing taxpayers with limited English proficiency meaningful access to information regarding their taxpayer rights and responsibilities. The Schedule LEP should only be filed to request written communications from the IRS in an alternative language, or when you have changed to an alternative language and want to convert back to English.

Basic information about filing your return and paying taxes is available in different languages. See www.irs.gov/MyLanguage.

Written communications. Different forms of written communications are issued by the IRS, such as correspondence and other printed material. These may include notifications sent to an individual taxpayer, including formal letters and notices, as well as general correspondence, tax forms, instructions, or publications. Generally, any inserts enclosed with the written communication will also be provided in the requested language.

You may not immediately receive written communications in the requested language. The IRS's commitment to LEP taxpayers is part of a multiyear timeline that is scheduled to begin providing translations in 2023. You will continue to receive communications, including notices and letters, in English until they are translated to your preferred language.

Who Can File

Schedule LEP is not mandatory but can be filed with a tax return by taxpayers with limited English proficiency to indicate their language of preference for IRS-issued written communications or change their language of preference.

How To File

File Schedule LEP with your income tax return. You can state this preference only by filing Schedule LEP with your income tax return. If you e-file Schedule LEP with your tax return, don't file the paper version of this form. See www.irs.gov/efile. File Schedule LEP with your current year tax return or any subsequent year returns, but not any year prior to 2020.

Name

Enter the name exactly as it appears on your tax return.

Joint Return

If you and your spouse are filing a joint return, file a Schedule LEP with your tax return for each spouse who prefers an alternative language. If both spouses would prefer to receive written communications in an alternative language other than English, file a separate form for each spouse even if both spouses prefer the same alternative language.

Social Security Number (SSN)

The SSN entered on this form should match the SSN listed on your tax return. If you're married and file a joint return, enter the SSN only of the spouse making the request. If you're a nonresident or resident alien and you don't have and aren't eligible to get an SSN, you must apply for an individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN). To obtain an ITIN, you must complete Form W-7, Application for IRS Individual Taxpayer Identification Number. If you already have an ITIN, enter it wherever your SSN is requested. See www.irs.gov/ITIN.

Line 1

Select one of the listed languages if you would prefer to receive future written communications in that language. Select only one of the listed options by checking the appropriate box. If you would like to cancel a previous election, select "000 Cancel previous election" and file a new Schedule LEP with the return for a subsequent tax year. Your selection will be effective for future written communications, including correspondence with respect to other tax years, until the selection is changed or cancelled.

Special assistance is available for persons with limited English proficiency. If you're unable to complete your tax return, you may be able to obtain assistance from the Volunteer Income Tax Assistance or Tax Counseling for the Elderly programs sponsored by the IRS. See www.irs.gov/VITA.
