Caution: DRAFT—NOT FOR FILING

This is an early release draft of an IRS tax form, instructions, or publication, which the IRS is providing for your information. Do not file draft forms and do not rely on draft forms, instructions, and pubs for filing. We incorporate all significant changes to forms posted with this coversheet. However, unexpected issues occasionally arise, or legislation is passed—in this case, we will post a new draft of the form to alert users that changes were made to the previously posted draft. Thus, there are never any changes to the last posted draft of a form and the final revision of the form. Forms and instructions are subject to OMB approval before they can be officially released, so we post drafts of them until they are approved. Drafts of instructions and pubs usually have some additional changes before their final release. Early release drafts are at IRS.gov/DraftForms and remain there after the final release is posted at IRS.gov/LatestForms. Also see IRS.gov/Forms.

Most forms and publications have a page on IRS.gov: IRS.gov/Form1040 for Form 1040; IRS.gov/Pub501 for Pub. 501; IRS.gov/W4 for Form W-4; and IRS.gov/ScheduleA for Schedule A (Form 1040), for example, and similarly for other forms, pubs, and schedules for Form 1040. When typing in a link, type it into the address bar of your browser, not a Search box on IRS.gov.

If you wish, you can submit comments to the IRS about draft or final forms, instructions, or pubs at IRS.gov/FormsComments. Include “NTF” followed by the form or pub number (for example, “NTF1040”, “NTFW4”, “NTF501, etc.) in the body of the message to route your message properly. We cannot respond to all comments due to the high volume we receive and may not be able to consider many suggestions until the subsequent revision of the product, but we will review each “NTF” message. If you have comments on reducing paperwork and respondent (filer) burden, with respect to draft or final forms, please respond to the relevant information collection through the Federal Register process; for more info, click here.

Future Developments

For the latest information about developments related to Form 8689 and its instructions, such as legislation enacted after they were published, go to www.irs.gov/Form8689.

Instructions

Purpose of form. Use Form 8689 to figure the amount of U.S. tax allocable to the U.S. Virgin Islands (USVI).

Who must file. If you were a U.S. citizen or resident alien (other than a bona fide resident of the USVI) and had income from sources in the USVI or income effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business in the USVI, you may owe tax to the USVI. Your USVI tax liability is a percentage of your U.S. tax liability.

*Do not use this form if you were a bona fide resident of the USVI during the entire tax year, or were considered a bona fide resident of the USVI for the entire tax year under the special rules for the year of a move (see chapter 1 of Pub. 570, Tax Guide for Individuals With Income From U.S. Territories).*

Joint returns. If you file jointly and only one spouse is a bona fide resident of the USVI for the entire tax year, the resident status for both spouses and subsequent tax treatment is determined by the spouse with the higher adjusted gross income (AGI) (disregarding community property laws). File Form 8689 only if the spouse with the higher AGI is not a bona fide resident of the USVI for the entire tax year.

Where to file. You must file identical tax returns with the United States and the USVI. If you are not enclosing a check or money order, file your original tax return (including Form 8689) with the Department of the Treasury, Internal Revenue Service, Austin, TX 73301-0215 USA.

If you are including a check or money order, file your original return with the Internal Revenue Service, P.O. Box 1303, Charlotte, NC 28201-1303 USA.

File a signed copy of your tax return (with all attachments, forms, and schedules, including Form 8689) with the Virgin Islands Bureau of Internal Revenue, 6115 Estate Smith Bay, Suite 225, St. Thomas, VI 00802. They will accept a signed copy of your U.S. return and process it as an original return.

Amended returns. You can e-file Form 1040-X, Amended U.S. Individual Income Tax Return, using tax filing software. Go to www.irs.gov/Filing/Amended-Return-Frequently-Asked-Questions for more information. Or, you can send your paper Form 1040-X to the IRS at the address in the Instructions for Form 1040-X. Send your Form 1040-X to the USVI at the address for the Virgin Islands Bureau of Internal Revenue under Where to file, earlier.

Additional information. See Pub. 570, available at www.irs.gov/Pub570.

Part I—Income From the U.S. Virgin Islands (USVI)

Source of income. The rules for determining the source of income are explained in sections 861 through 865 and 937, Regulations section 1.937-2, and chapter 2 of Pub. 570. Some general rules are:

- The source of wages, salaries, or tips is generally where the services are performed. If you worked both in and outside the USVI, include on line 1 only wages, salaries, or tips earned while you were in the USVI. However, certain income earned while temporarily performing services in the USVI will not be considered USVI source income. For details, see De minimis exception, later.

Active duty U.S. Armed Forces. If you are a bona fide resident of the USVI and are stationed outside of the USVI, your military compensation will be sourced in the USVI under the Servicemembers Civil Relief Act (SCRA). If you are not a bona fide resident of the USVI but are stationed in the USVI, however, your military compensation will not be sourced there. For further details, see Pub. 570.

Military spouses. If you are the civilian spouse of a member of the U.S. Armed Forces, work in the USVI, and retain a residence or domicile in one of the 50 states, the District of Columbia, or another U.S. territory, under the Military Spouses Residency Relief Act (MSRRA) your wages, salaries, tips, and self-employment income will not be considered income from the USVI. Under MSRRA, the military spouse must be in the USVI solely to be with their servicemember spouse who is serving in compliance with military orders. For details on MSRRA, see Pub. 570.

- The source of interest income is generally where the payer is located. For example, interest from a certificate of deposit issued by a USVI bank or a USVI branch of a U.S. bank is USVI source income.
- Generally, dividends are sourced where the paying corporation is created or organized.
- Taxable refunds, credits, or offsets of local USVI income taxes include only nonmirror code income taxes.
- Alimony received from a person who is a bona fide resident of the USVI is USVI source income.
- Except as provided in regulations, income that is from sources within the United States or effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business in the United States is not income from the USVI.
- The source of gains, profits, or income from the sale or disposition of real property (and any interest in real property) is generally where the real property is located.

Personal property. The source of income from the sale of nondepreciable personal property is generally the seller's residence. For example, if you are a U.S. citizen or resident alien and not a bona fide resident of the USVI, gain from the sale or disposition of personal property is generally treated as U.S. source. Income from the sale of inventory is generally sourced where the title to the property passes. However, in some cases, such as when the taxpayer produces or purchases the inventory within a U.S. territory, and then sells the inventory within the United States, source is based on allocation. See section 865 for details.

De minimis exception. This is an exception to the general rule for determining the source of income earned in the USVI. Generally, income from the USVI does not include compensation for services performed in the USVI if during 2024 you:

- Were a U.S. citizen or resident;
- Were not a bona fide resident of the USVI;
- Were not employed by or under contract with an individual, partnership, or corporation that is engaged in a trade or business in the USVI;
- Temporarily performed services in the USVI for 90 days or less; and
- Earned $3,000 or less from such services.

Part II—Adjusted Gross Income From the USVI

Lines 21 through 23. If you had USVI source self-employment income, figure the amount to enter on each line by (1) dividing your USVI source self-employment income by your total (worldwide) self-employment income, and (2) multiplying the total amount of each deduction that applies to you by the result in (1).

Line 24. Enter the amount of penalty on early withdrawals from savings accounts in USVI banks or USVI branches of U.S. banks. The Form 1099-INT or Form 1099-OID you received will show the amount of any penalty you were charged.

Line 25. Enter the total of your and your spouse's IRA deductions attributable to USVI compensation or earned income. Figure the amount to report on line 25 by (1) dividing your USVI compensation or earned income by your total (worldwide) compensation or earned income, and (2) multiplying the amount of your IRA deduction by the result in (1). Figure the amount of your spouse's IRA deduction the same way.

Line 29. Include in the total on line 29 the amount of any other deductions included on the Archer MSA deduction line and the Total other adjustments line of Schedule 1 (Form 1040) that are attributable to your USVI income. On the dotted line next to line 29, enter the name and amount of each deduction attributable to your USVI income. On line 29, enter the total amount of deductions attributable to your USVI income. If you or your spouse had an Archer MSA deduction on Schedule 1 (Form 1040), figure the amount to report on line 29 the same way you would an IRA deduction (see Line 25 above).

Line 30. This amount is your adjusted gross income.

Line 32. Enter the total of the amounts from:

Form 1040.

- Earned income credit (EIC);
- Refundable child tax credit or additional child tax credit; and
- American opportunity credit.

Schedule 2 (Form 1040).

- Self-employment tax;
- Social security and Medicare tax on unreported tip income;
- Uncollected social security and Medicare tax on wages;
- Household employment tax;
- Uncollected social security and Medicare or RRTA tax on tips or group-term life insurance from Form W-2, box 12;
- Tax on excess golden parachute payments;
- Excise tax on insider stock compensation from an expatriated corporation; and
- Additional tax on excess contributions or accumulation from Form 5329.

Schedule 3 (Form 1040).

- Section 1341 credit for repayment of amounts included in income from earlier years;
- Net section 965 liability remaining to be paid in future years; and
- Credit under section 960(c) with respect to an excess limitation account.

Part IV—Payments of Income Tax to the USVI

Amounts overpaid to the United States will generally not be applied to the amount you owe to the USVI. Similarly, amounts overpaid to the USVI will not be applied to the amount you owe to the United States.

Line 46. Enter the amount you owe to the USVI that you will pay when you file your income tax return.

Credit for U.S. tax paid to the USVI. You can take a credit on your U.S. return for the U.S. tax allocated to the USVI only if you actually paid the tax to the USVI. To take the credit, you must complete Form 8689 and attach it to your Form 1040 or 1040-SR. Add line 41 and line 46 of Form 8689 and include the amount in the total on Schedule 3 (Form 1040), other refundable credits line.

Penalty for Failure To Furnish Information

If you became or ceased to be a bona fide resident of a U.S. territory, you may be required to file Form 8898, Statement for Individuals Who Begin or End Bona Fide Residence in a U.S. Territory. If you fail to provide the required information, you may have to pay a $1,000 penalty for each failure unless you can show the failure was due to reasonable cause and not willful neglect. This penalty is in addition to any criminal penalty provided by law. For details, see the Instructions for Form 8898.
