

STATEMENT REGARDING FAMILY AND EARNINGS FOR SPECIAL GUARANTY COMPUTATION

SECTION 1 General Instructions

Before you complete this statement, be sure to read the booklet G-179, *Special Guaranty in Employee and Spouse Annuities, which explains the information you will need to answer many of the questions in this statement.

Please read "Important Notices" on the last page of this statement.

Type or print all answers legibly in ink. If you need more space than is provided to answer a question, use Section 8 for this purpose. If you do not know the answer, print "unknown" in the space provided for the answer.

When entering dates, always use numbers. Also, be sure there is one number in each box. For example, you would enter January 2, 2018, as:

MONTH	DAY	YEAR
0 1	0 2	2 4

Some items in this statement will not apply to you so you will not need to answer them. Based on your answer to a question, you may be told to skip to another item number or even another section. Follow the instructions that tell you to "Go to" another item. These are designed to save you time and help you move through the statement quickly, filling in only necessary information. If no "Go to" instructions are given, answer the next item in order. Do not skip any item unless directed to do so.

If you are completing this statement on behalf of someone else, you must answer each question as it applies to that person.

SECTION 2 Identifying Information

Check the information entered by the Railroad Retirement Board (RRB) for accuracy.

- If the information is correct, go to Section 3.
- If the information is not correct, cross out the incorrect information and enter the correct information above it.
- If the information is missing, fill it in.

I know that if I make a false or fraudulent statement in order to receive benefits from the Railroad Retirement Board (RRB), I am committing a crime which is punishable under Federal law. I have received booklet G-179, Special Guaranty in Employee and Spouse Annuities. I also understand that I am responsible for reporting any events that would affect my benefits, as explained in that booklet.

I certify that the information I gave to the RRB on this statement is true to the best of my knowledge.

I agree to immediately notify the RRB:

- If my marriage ends by death or divorce.
- If a minor or disabled child included in the computation of the annuity leaves the custody of the spouse, marries, dies, or enters military service.
- If a family member files an application for social security benefits on any person's earnings record.
- If the spouse begins to receive a public service pension or there is a change in the amount of the public service pension.
- If I or a family member is confined to a jail, prison, penal institution, or correctional facility due to a conviction for a criminal offense.

Also, I agree to immediately notify the RRB if I or a family member, included in the annuity computation, earns more than the annual earnings exempt amount. Failure to report these earnings on a timely basis may result in penalty deductions from the Special Guaranty benefits.

SECTION 10 How To Return This Statement

Before you return this statement, check to make sure that:

- ▶ Every question that applies to you has been answered.
- ▶ You have entered "unknown" in any answer space for which you were unable to answer a question.
- ▶ You have signed and dated the statement.
- ▶ You have included all the needed proofs.

When you received this statement, you should also have received a pre-addressed return envelope. If you do not have this envelope, you can use any envelope as long as it is addressed to the RRB office shown on page 11 of this statement. No matter which envelope you use, you must put the correct postage on the envelope. Be careful to provide enough postage, because this statement and the accompanying forms may weigh more than a standard letter. The U.S. Postal Service will not deliver this statement unless it has the correct postage.

Make one final check before you seal the envelope to ensure that the following are enclosed:

- ▶ NEEDED PROOFS
- ▶ THE STATEMENT ITSELF
- ▶ ADDITIONAL FORMS YOU WERE ASKED TO COMPLETE

Note: Make no entries on page 11, which is the receipt for your statement. After the RRB receives this statement, they will complete the items on the receipt and send it back to you. When it is returned to you, you will know that the RRB has received this statement and has started the work needed to determine if you are entitled to increased benefits. If you do not receive the receipt within a month after you filed this statement, please contact us so we can find out what is causing the delay.

Your statement for a Special Guaranty computation has been received and will be processed as quickly as possible. If you change your address, or if there is some other change that may affect your claim, you or your representative should report that change. The changes to be reported are listed below. Always give us your RRB claim number when writing or calling about your claim. If you have any questions about your claim, we will be glad to help you. If you need to personally visit one of our field offices, please call for an appointment. You will not be refused service if you do not have an appointment, but our staff can serve you better when an appointment is made. Railroad Retirement Board offices are open to the public 9:00 AM to 3:00 PM, Monday through Friday, and closed Federal Holidays.

Always Report These Changes To The RRB

- ADDRESS - If your address changes. To avoid delays in receipt of payments and RRB correspondence, you should also file a regular change of address with your U.S. Post Office.
- EARNINGS - If anyone included in the family group for the Special Guaranty computation, who is subject to the annual earnings exempt amount, has earnings that change from the amount you reported.

On your statement you told us that in the year _____:
 - Each family member will earn less than their own annual earnings exempt amount.
 - _____ will earn $ _____ in employment or self-employment; and, either:
 - will earn more than $ _____ each month or
 - will be performing substantial service in self-employment each month.
- PUBLIC SERVICE PENSION - If the spouse included in the annuity computation begins to receive a public service pension or the public service pension amount changes.
- CHILD STATUS - If a child included in the annuity computation marries, dies, or leaves the spouse's custody.
- SOCIAL SECURITY BENEFITS - If you or a family member begin to receive social security benefits directly from the Social Security Administration.
- MARRIAGE ENDS - If your marriage ends by death or divorce.
- CRIMINAL OFFENSE - If you or a family member are confined to a jail, prison, penal institution or correctional facility due to a conviction for a criminal offense.

How To Report Changes

When a change occurs, you should report the change at once. You or your representative can make your reports either by telephone, mail, or in person, whichever you prefer.

In addition, an annual report of earnings must be filed with the RRB within 3 months and 15 days after the end of any taxable year in which you or a family member earned more than the annual earnings exempt amount. The annual report of earnings is required by law and failure to report may result in the loss of one or more monthly benefits.

To report any of the above changes, contact:

Paperwork Reduction Act and Privacy Act Notices

This notice is given under the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 and the Privacy Act of 1974. The Privacy Act requires that the Railroad Retirement Board (RRB) tell you the following whenever we ask you for information:

- 1) The law which allows us to ask for information;
- 2) whether that law requires you to give us that information and what, if anything, might happen to you if you do not give it to us;
- 3) the reason why the information is requested; and
- 4) the persons, organizations, and agencies to which we may release the information without your permission.

The RRB's authority for requesting this information is Section 7(b) of the Railroad Retirement Act of 1974. Providing us with this information is voluntary on your part. However, if you fail to provide us with the requested information we may be unable to pay you any benefits. The RRB needs this information to determine whether you are eligible to receive such benefits and, if so, the amount you are entitled to receive. If your Special Guaranty computation is approved and we begin to pay you benefits, information that we may request from you in the future will be used to determine whether you are entitled to continue to receive such benefits.

Although the information we request is almost never used for any purpose other than the payment of benefits under the Railroad Retirement Act, the RRB does have the authority to release information to the indicated individuals, organizations, and/or agencies listed below without your approval:

- 1) An attorney, the Office of the President, a Congressional office, a labor union or the Department of State's embassy or consular offices if they allege to be representing you at your request.
- 2) Other people who are receiving benefits based on the same railroad retirement account as you are if the information affects their payments from the RRB.
- 3) A person who will receive benefits on your behalf if the RRB decided that some medical condition keeps you from receiving your own benefits; such information may also be released to determine whether such a medical condition exists and who is suitable to receive such benefits for you.
- 4) People or organizations who are working for the RRB; such information may include medical records.
- 5) The U.S. Treasury Department or U.S. Postal Service to issue payments and to investigate lost, forged, or stolen checks.
- 6) Your last employer (or to its insurance company) to make sure that you can receive any private retirement or insurance benefits which may be offered by the employer.
- 7) The Social Security Administration, Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services, Pension Benefit Guarantee Corporation, Office of Personnel Management,

Department of Veterans Affairs, or Federal, state, or local welfare or public aid agencies to determine if you can receive benefits from these organizations and if any previous benefits were paid incorrectly.

- 8) The Internal Revenue Service or to state and local taxing authorities for figuring your taxes and for use in audits.
- 9) Your last address and the name of your last employer may be released to the Department of Health and Human Services to be used in the Parent Locator Service.
- 10) The Government Accountability Office for audits and for collecting overpayments owed to the RRB or the Social Security Administration.
- 11) The U.S. Department of Labor as required by the Federal Coal Mine and Safety Act.
- 12) In certain cases for law enforcement purposes and for court proceedings.
- 13) Information about the determination and recovery of an overpayment made to you may be released to any other person from whom any portion of the overpayment is being recovered.
- 14) Your name and address may be released to a Member of Congress to inform you about current or proposed legislation which could affect the railroad retirement system.
- 15) Professional Standards Review Organizations and State Licensing Boards when services provided by physicians or practitioners suggest unethical or unprofessional conduct.

We estimate this form takes an average of 26-55 minutes for an employee and 30-60 minutes for a spouse per response to complete, including the time for reviewing the instructions, getting the needed data, and reviewing the completed form. Federal agencies may not conduct or sponsor, and respondents are not required to respond to, a collection of information unless it displays a valid OMB number. If you wish, email or send your comments regarding the accuracy of our estimate or any other aspect of this form, including suggestions for reducing the completion time, to: Associate Chief Information Officer for Policy and Compliance, Railroad Retirement Board, 844 North Rush Street, Chicago, IL 60611-1275.

Computer Matching and Privacy Protection Act Notice

The Computer Matching and Privacy Protection Act of 1988 requires the Railroad Retirement Board (RRB) to advise you that information you have provided may be used, without your consent, in automated matching programs. These matching programs are a computer comparison of RRB records with records kept by other Federal, state, or local governmental agencies. Information from these matching programs can be used to establish or verify a person's eligibility for federally funded or administered benefit programs and for repayment of payments or delinquent debts under these programs.
