As a Cancer Survivor who has experienced my legally prescribed medication being delayed more times than needed. It causes many issues as it is. Multiple phone calls every month just to ensure i can pick up on the refill date. I've went thru coercion with a pain management Dr. Trying to FORCE me into more surgeries for no other reason than YOUR actions. Where were you when I was denied my Long Term Disability insurance due to a 5 year cancer free check up before I found round two? I have PTSD from the systems YOU set up.

Gaslighting- maimed- denied-denied- dispute- Gaslighting
And I PAY for this. With my savings/ 401k's and HOME.

The ONLY person that should be deciding MY care is ME.

The government is failing, our laws are failing and our Health"care" and insurance HAVE failed.

Do right by WE the People. Not by whose paying the most in special interests.

Remember, you too will be old and disabled too. If not you, than someone you do love.

Maybe then, you'll see the hell you built.

Leave my medication alone. It's not your damn life, it's mine.

It's what allows me and millions of others like me to even function.

And these "solutions" you throw are worse. At least I have my teeth still.

Why has the abuse continued since 2016?

You should have to read the messages of pain and humiliation and malace pain patients go. You've made us into the villains.

Bravo.
