WHAT TO REPORT

The kinds of events that you must report to Social Security are listed in items 1 through 9 on this form. Check any of the events that apply to you and fill in any other information requested about the event.

FAILURE TO REPORT

If you do not report events as shown on this form, you may not be paid some or all of the benefits due you, or you may be overpaid, in which case, you will have to pay back any benefits you received that were not due you.

Also, if you conceal or fail to disclose a report event with an intent to fraudulently obtain benefits either in a greater amount than is due or when no payment is authorized, you may be FINED, IMPRISONED, or both, as provided in section 208 of the Social Security Act.

OTHER USES WHICH MAY BE MADE OF THE INFORMATION ON THIS REPORT

Privacy Act Statement Collection and Use of Personal Information

Sections 202(d), 203 (h), and 205(a) of the Social Security Act, as amended, allow us to collect this information. Furnishing us this information is voluntary. However, failing to provide all or part of the information may prevent an accurate and timely decision on any claim filed.

We will use the information to determine your entitlement and benefits. We may also share your information for the following purposes, called routine uses:

- To the Department of State, for administration of the Social Security Act in foreign countries through services and facilities of that agency; and
- To claimants, prospective claimants (other than the data subject), and their authorized representatives or representative payees, to the extent necessary to pursue Social Security claims; to representative payees, when the information pertains to individuals for whom they serve as representative payees, for the purpose of assisting us in administering representative payment responsibilities under the Social Security Act; and to representative payees, for the purpose of assisting them in performing their duties as payees, including receiving and accounting for benefits for individuals for whom they serve as payees.

In addition, we may share this information in accordance with the Privacy Act and other Federal laws. For example, where authorized, we may use and disclose this information in computer matching programs, in which our records are compared with other records to establish or verify a person's eligibility for Federal benefit programs and for repayment of incorrect or delinquent debts under these programs.

A list of additional routine uses is available in our Privacy Act System of Records Notice (SORN) 60-0089 entitled Claims Folders System, as published in the Federal Register (FR) on October 31, 2019, at 84 FR 58422. Additional information, and a full listing of all our SORNs, is available on our website at www.ssa.gov/privacy.

Paperwork Reduction Act Statement

This information collection meets the requirements of 44 U.S.C. § 3507, as amended by section 2 of the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995. You do not need to answer these questions unless we display a valid Office of Management and Budget (OMB) control number. We estimate that it will take about 6 minutes to read the instructions, gather the facts, and answer the questions. Send only comments relating to our time estimate above to: SSA, 6401 Security Blvd, Baltimore, MD 21235-6401.
