

Instructions – Bylaws

Organizing and existing national banks should follow these instructions. The paragraphs marked with an asterisk * are not mandatory. However, the subject covered by such paragraphs should be addressed adequately by alternative provisions in the Bylaws in a manner consistent with law.

Specific Requirements

1. Directors should number no less than five or no more than twenty-five, unless the OCC has granted a waiver to the twenty-five-director limit. Information about qualifying shares and vacancies should be included. For a bankers' bank, information about replacing participating banks should be included. (12 USC 27(b), 71a, 72, 74 and 12 CFR 7.2005, 7.2007, 7.2008, 7.2009.)
2. The annual shareholders' meeting and the election of directors should be discussed. (12 USC 71, 75 and 12 CFR, 7.2002, 7.2003, 7.2004, 7.2005, 7.2006, 7.2007.)
3. The bylaws must include the requirement that the president be a member of the board and discuss the board's powers, including its ability to appoint management. (12 USC 24(5), 76 and 12 CFR 7.2010, 7.2012, and 7.2015)
4. The ability to call special meetings of the shareholders should be discussed. (12 USC 57, 59, 75, 181, 214a, 215, 215a)
5. Restrictions on the transfer of stock and information about stock certificates should be included in the bylaws. (12 CFR 7.2016)
6. Indemnity agreements should be consistent with 12 CFR 7.2014. If the payment of insurance premiums is included, the article should explicitly exclude coverage of liability for a formal order assessing civil money penalties against a director or employee.
7. The bylaws should specify the corporate governance procedures the bank will follow. To the extent not inconsistent with applicable Federal banking statutes or regulations, or bank safety and soundness, a national bank may elect to follow the corporate governance procedures of the law of the state in which the main office or any branch of the bank is located, the law of any state in which the holding company is incorporated, the Delaware General Corporation Act, Del. Code Ann. Tit. 8 (1991, as amended 1994, and as amended thereafter), or the Model Business Corporation Act (1984, as amended 1994, and as amended thereafter). (12 CFR 7.2000)

Meetings of Shareholders

Section 1.1. Annual Meeting. The regular annual meeting of the shareholders to elect directors and transact whatever other business may properly come before the meeting, shall be held at the main office of the association, (street address), city of _____, state of _____ or such other place as the board of directors may designate, at ___ o'clock, on the _____ of each year, or if that date falls on a legal holiday in the state in which the association is located, on the next following banking day. Notice of the meeting shall be mailed by first class mail, postage prepaid, at least 10 days and no more than 60 days prior to the date thereof, addressed to each shareholder at his or her address appearing on the books of the association. If, for any cause, an election of directors is not made on that date, or in the event of a legal holiday, on the next following banking day, an election may be held on any subsequent day within 60 days of the date fixed, to be designated by the board of directors, or, if the directors fail to fix the date, by shareholders representing two-thirds of the shares. In these circumstances, at least 10 days' notice must be given by first-class mail to the shareholders.

* Section 1.2. Special Meetings. Except as otherwise specifically provided by statute, special meetings of the shareholders may be called for any purpose at any time by the board of directors or by any _____ percentage or more shareholders owning, in the aggregate, not less than _____ percent of the stock of the association. Every such special meeting, unless otherwise provided by law, shall be called by mailing, postage prepaid, not less than 10 days nor more than 60 days prior to the date fixed for the meeting, to each shareholder at the address appearing on the books of the association a notice stating the purpose of the meeting.

The board of directors may fix a record date for determining shareholders entitled to notice and to vote at any meeting, in reasonable proximity to the date of giving notice to the shareholders of such meeting. The record date for determining shareholders entitled to demand a special meeting is the date the first shareholder signs a demand for the meeting describing the purpose or purposes for which it is to be held.

Shareholders or the board of directors may call a special meeting to amend the Articles of Association or Bylaws, regardless of whether the board may amend the Bylaws in the absence of shareholder approval.

If an annual or special shareholder' meeting is adjourned to a different date, time, or place, notice need not be given of the new date, time or place, if the new date, time or place is announced at the meeting before adjournment, unless any additional items of business are to be considered, or the association becomes aware of an intervening event materially affecting any matter to be voted on more than 10 days prior to the date to which the meeting is adjourned. If a new record date for the adjourned meeting is fixed, however, notice of the adjourned meeting must be given to persons who are shareholders as of the new record date. If, however, the meeting to elect the directors is adjourned before the election takes place, at least ten days' notice of the new election must be given to the shareholders by first-class mail.

Section 1.3. Nominations of Directors. Nominations for election to the board of directors may be made by the board of directors or by any stockholder of any outstanding class of capital stock of the association entitled to vote for the election of directors. Nominations, other than those made by or on behalf of the existing management of the association, shall be made in writing and shall be delivered or mailed to the president of the association not less than 14 days nor more than 50 days prior to any meeting of shareholders called for the election of directors, provided that, however, that if less than 21 days' notice of the meeting is given to shareholders, such nomination shall be mailed or delivered to the president of the association no later than the close of business on the seventh day following the day on which the notice of meeting was mailed. Such notification shall contain the following information to the extent known to the notifying shareholder:

- (1) The name and address of each proposed nominee.
- (2) The principal occupation of each proposed nominee.
- (3) The total number of shares of capital stock of the association that will be voted for each proposed nominee.
- (4) The name and residence address of the notifying shareholder.
- (5) The number of shares of capital stock of the association owned by the notifying shareholder.

The chairperson of the meeting may, in his or her discretion, disregard nominations not made in accordance herewith, and upon his or her instructions, the vote tellers may disregard all votes cast for each such nominee.

* Section 1.4. Judges of Election. Three judges, who shall be appointed from among the shareholders by the board of directors, shall hold and conduct every election of directors. The judges of election shall hold and conduct the election at which they are appointed to serve. After the election, they shall file with the cashier a certificate signed by them, certifying the result thereof and the names of the directors elected. The judges of election, at the request of the chairperson of the meeting, shall act as tellers of any other vote by ballot taken at such meeting, and shall certify the result thereof.

Section 1.5. Proxies. Shareholders may vote at any meeting of the shareholders by proxies duly authorized in writing, but no officer or employee of this association shall act as proxy. Proxies shall be valid only for one meeting, to be specified therein, and any adjournments of such meeting. Proxies shall be dated and filed with the records of the meeting. Proxies with facsimile signatures may be used and unexecuted proxies may be counted upon receipt of a written confirmation from the shareholder. Proxies meeting the above requirements submitted at any time during a meeting shall be accepted.

Section 1.6. Quorum. A majority of the outstanding capital stock, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at any meeting of shareholders, unless otherwise provided by law, or by the shareholders or directors pursuant to section 9.2, but less than a quorum may adjourn any meeting, from time to time, and the meeting may be held, as adjourned, without further notice. A majority of the votes cast shall decide every question or matter submitted to the shareholders at any meeting, unless otherwise provided by law or by the Articles of Association, or by the shareholders or directors pursuant to section 9.2. If a meeting for the election of directors is not held on the fixed date, at least 10 days' notice must be given by first-class mail to the shareholders.

Directors

Section 2.1. Board of Directors. The board of directors (board) shall have the power to manage and administer the business and affairs of the association. Except as expressly limited by law, all corporate powers of the association shall be vested in and may be exercised by the board.

Section 2.2. Number. The board shall consist of no less than five nor more than twenty-five persons, unless the OCC has exempted the bank from the 25-member limit. The exact number is to be fixed and determined from time to time by resolution of a majority of the full board of directors or by resolution of a majority of the shareholders at any annual or special meeting thereof.

Section 2.3. (For use if the bank has staggered terms of directors.) Term of Directors. Directors shall be elected for periods of one to three years and until their successors are elected and qualified, but if a staggered board is chosen, provision shall be made for the election of approximately one-third or one-half of the board each year, as appropriate.

Section 2.4. Organization Meeting. The cashier or secretary, upon receiving the certificate of the judges, of the result of any election, shall notify the directors-elect of their election and of the time at which they are required to meet at the main office of the association to organize the new board and elect and appoint officers of the association for the succeeding year. Such meeting shall be held on the day of the election or as soon thereafter as practicable, and, in any event, within 30 days thereof. If, at the time fixed for such meeting, there shall not be a quorum, the directors present may adjourn the meeting, from time to time, until a quorum is obtained.

Section 2.5. Regular Meetings. The regular meetings of the board of directors shall be held, without notice, on the _____ of each _____ at the main office or other such place as the board may designate. When any regular meeting of the board falls upon a holiday, the meeting shall be held on the next banking business day unless the board shall designate another day.

Section 2.6. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the board of directors may be called by the association, or at the request of _____ or more directors. Each member of the board of directors shall be given notice stating the time and place by telegram, first class mail, or in person, of each special meeting.

Section 2.7. Quorum. A majority of the entire board then in office on the board shall constitute a quorum at any meeting, but a lesser number may adjourn any meeting, from time to time, and the meeting may be held, as adjourned, without further notice. If the number of directors present at the meeting is reduced below the number that would constitute a quorum, no business may be transacted.

Section 2.8. Vacancies. When any vacancy occurs among the directors, a majority of the remaining members of the board, according to the laws of the United States, may appoint a director to fill such vacancy at any regular meeting of the board, or at a special meeting called for that purpose at which a quorum is present, by the affirmative vote of a majority of all the directors remaining in office, or by shareholders at a special meeting called for that purpose, in conformance with section 2.2 of this article. At any such shareholder meeting, each shareholder entitled to vote may have the right to multiply the number of votes he or she is entitled to cast by the number of vacancies being filled and cast the product for a single candidate or distribute the product among two or more candidates.

A vacancy that will occur at a specific later date (by reason of a resignation effective at a later date) may be filled before the vacancy occurs, but the new director may not take office until the vacancy occurs.
