

Child Strength Study for Product Safety

childstrength@umich.edu

University of Michigan researchers are seeking volunteers, age 3-36 months old to participate in a study measuring child strength. The data collected from this study will be used to develop safety standards for products children use.

Participants will receive $50 for 2 hours of participation

Want to learn more?
Scan the QR code

