

Privacy Act Statement

The U.S. Census Bureau is conducting this voluntary study under the authority of 13 U.S.C. 141, and 193. The purpose of collecting this information is to improve and inform future surveys.

The U.S. Census Bureau is required by law to protect your information. The Census Bureau is not permitted to publicly release your responses in a way that could identify you. Federal law protects your privacy and keeps your answers confidential (Title 13, United States Code, Section 9). Per the Federal Cybersecurity Enhancement Act of 2015, your data are protected from cybersecurity risks through screening of the systems that transmit your data. Your privacy is protected by the Privacy Act of 1974 (5 U.S.C. Section 552a). The Privacy Act permits sharing of the information provided to us for work-related purposes as identified in the Privacy Act System of Records Notices (SORNs) COMMERCE/Census -3, Demographic Survey Collection (Census Bureau Sampling Frame); COMMERCE/CENSUS-5, Decennial Census Programs; COMMERCE/CENSUS-4, Economic Survey Collections; and COMMERCE/CENSUS-7, Demographic Survey Collection (non-Census Bureau Sampling Frame).

The Census Bureau can use your responses only to produce statistics and is not permitted to publicly release your responses in a way that could identify you, your business, organization, or institution.
