Background

The U.S. Repatriation Program was established in 1935 under Section 1113 of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. § 1313) to provide temporary assistance to U.S. citizens and their dependents who have been identified by the U.S. Department of State as having returned, or been brought from a foreign country, to the United States because of destitution, illness, war, threat of war, or a similar crisis, and because they are without resources immediately accessible to meet their needs.

The Office of Human Services Emergency Preparedness and Response (OHSEPR), within the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services' Administration for Children and Families', manages the U.S. Repatriation Program. OHSEPR leads all federal non-emergency and emergency repatriation training, technical assistance, planning, and operations conducted as part of the U.S. Repatriation Program.

States, territories, counties, and local service providers may use this form to request training and technical assistance on the U.S. Repatriation Program via a web portal account.
