MEMORANDUM FOR: Reviewer of 1220-0050

FROM: ADAM SAFIR, Chief
 Division of Consumer Expenditure (CE) Surveys
 Bureau of Labor Statistics

SUBJECT: Non-substantive Change Request for the Consumer Expenditure Surveys (CEX)

To conform to OMB policies and the January 20, 2025, executive order 14168 “Defending Women from Gender Ideology Extremism and Restoring Biological Truth to the Federal Government,” CE will replace the word “gender” with the word “sex” in the following survey materials (See Attachment A for specific questions):

- In the CEQ CAPI, “Gender needed for ^Name” will be replaced with ”Sex needed for ^Name” on April 1, 2026.
- In the CED CAPI, “What is the gender and age range for whom this was purchased?” will be replaced with “What is the sex and age range for whom this was purchased?” on April 1, 2026.
- In the CED Online Diary User Guide, “Select the gender and age” will be replaced with “Select the sex and age.” New guides will be printed and available for use by June 2026.
- In the CED Online Diary, “Select the age range and gender” has been replaced with “Select the age range and sex” as of January 31, 2026.
- In the YouTube tutorial entitled, “What to Enter in the CE Diary,” “Gender and age of the person the item was bought for” will be replaced with “Sex and age of the person the item was bought for.” The video has been taken down temporarily until an update is available.

These changes will not result in any increase to respondent burden.

Current OMB approval of the CE surveys is scheduled to expire November 30, 2027.
