American Indian/Alaska Native Preference

Certain federal agencies, such as the Indian Health Service and Indian Affairs, provide a preference to qualified American Indian candidates. If you identify as American Indian or Alaska Native, responding to the question below may allow these agencies to consider you for positions using Indian Preference.

You may qualify for Indian Preference if you meet one or more of the below criteria:

- You are a member of a federally-recognized Indian tribe, band, or community.
- You are a descendant of a member of a federally-recognized Indian tribe, band, or community who was residing on any Indian Reservation on June 1, 1934.
- You possess at least one-half degree of Indian blood derived from tribes indigenous to the United States.
- You are an Alaska Native or a descendant of an Alaska Native.

You can find more information at Indian Preference and by reviewing Form BIA 4432 Verification of Indian Preference.

Do you think you may qualify for Indian Preference?

- Drop down with the following options: Yes, I think I qualify for Indian Preference; No, I do not think I qualify for Indian Preference.

Manage Documents

On this page, candidates can upload required and optional documents. Some documents are required in order for the application to be submitted, so please read all the below instructions carefully.

Candidates must upload the following two documents to submit their application:

- Resume
- College or university transcript

The transcript can be official or unofficial. It should be from the college or university that the candidate currently attends or attended most recently. If it is your first term and you do not yet have grades, please provide a transcript from your previous schooling experience as well as a transcript without grades from your current school.

Candidates may also choose to upload optional documents that provide the opportunity to demonstrate their academic achievements; work, volunteer, or extracurricular experiences; and career interests and goals. These optional documents may include:

- Cover letter
- Letter of recommendation
- Writing sample
- Additional resume

Students are prohibited from uploading the following documents:

- Any document that contains social security number or copies of identification records (e.g. driver's license, birth certificate)
- Any medical or federal personnel documentation related to their disability, such as Schedule A eligibility letters, VA disability records, etc.

WRP candidates should work to acquire a Schedule A letter as soon as their application is submitted, since they will need it to be hired by a federal agency through the WRP. Candidates should not upload their Schedule A letter to the WRP website, but should be prepared to provide it to processing HR officials when it is requested. Candidates can learn more by going to the following resources:

WRP.gov/ScheduleA and WRP.gov/StepsForScheduleA

Please use the paperclip icon in the top-right of this form to upload documents. Candidates may upload up to six documents. Files must be no more than 1 MB in size. Please be aware that all documents uploaded to this page will be available to all WRP registered employers.

The following file types are allowed for resumes:

Word (.doc and .docx)

Rich Text (.rtf)

The following additional file types are allowed for all other documents:

PDF (.pdf)

Open Office (.odt and .ods)

Most graphic formats (.gif, .jpg, .png, .jpeg)

WRP asks that the documents you upload be in an accessible format. For more information on creating accessible documents, go to <https://www.section508.gov/create/documents>.

Note: In Print Preview mode you cannot upload documents. To upload documents, you have to select the "Manage Documents" link at the bottom of the page.

I certify that I have uploaded at least one resume (Required checkbox)

I certify that I have uploaded at least one transcript (Required checkbox)

Short Answer Text Box with 100-word limit: Career Interests (Required)

In no more than 100 words, please describe your career interests and what types of job or internship opportunities you are interested in. If you need examples, please look at the [Career Interests Examples].

Job Accommodations (optional)

Please use this field to indicate what electronic and/or equipment accommodations you may need to perform a job successfully. This is an optional field, and you are not required to disclose accommodation needs if you do not wish to do so. Please be aware that all registered employers will be able to see this field and its contents. You will still need to go through official agency processes to request a reasonable accommodation if you receive a job offer or interview opportunity with an employer.

Location Preferences

List all states or territories where you are interested in working and able to move to for an internship or job opportunity. While most WRP federal opportunities are paid, you will be responsible for finding your own housing.

Please be realistic about where you are willing and able to live, but thorough in your selections. For example, if you are selecting the District of Columbia, you may want to include Virginia and Maryland, which are within a commuting distance. If you are open to working overseas in civilian roles, please indicate one or more of the "Armed Forces" locations, which denote overseas locations and bases.

In the "Location Preference Description" field, you may indicate more specifics, such as an area of the state where you are interested in working or other parameters.

Location Preference (Required)

- Drop down list where candidate can select one or more U.S. states or territories, as well as overseas base/Armed Forces addresses

Location Preference Description

Are you interested in and willing to work abroad in other countries? (Required)

- Drop down with the following options: Yes, No

Multi select field: Please select all the types of work environments you are interested in. (Required)

- Multi-select list of options: In-Person Work (working at an office/work site), Hybrid Work (some days teleworking and some days at the office/work site), Remote Work

Please be honest about the types of employment you are interested in, but keep in mind that if you only select remote work, you may hear from fewer employers because many positions may have an in-person component.

Disability and Demographic Information

Please note that the Disability Category and Demographic Category information is collected for statistical purposes only and are only shared in aggregate and in an anonymous fashion. Individual responses are confidential and will not be shared with employers.

Please indicate your stage in acquiring a Schedule A letter. (Required)

Finalize

Click the "Submit Application" button below to finalize your application and submit it for review.

Once you submit your application, it will be included in the WRP database and will be available for WRP employers to search and view for one year beginning in December [WRP Year-1]. Applicants are responsible for updating their application information, particularly their contact information and resume, throughout the year.

If you would like to withdraw your application for any reason, you need to contact your School Coordinator or email wrp@dol.gov. If you receive a job opportunity outside of WRP at any time during [WRP Year] and are no longer interested in receiving interview or employment opportunities during [WRP Year], please email wrp@dol.gov to request that WRP archive your application.

After you submit your application, you will receive an email confirming that it was submitted. If you do not, please contact your School Coordinator.
