N-400, Application For Naturalization			Form N-400, Application for Naturalization, is an application to become a naturalized U.S. citizen. Naturalization is the process you take to voluntarily become a U.S. citizen if you were born outside of the United States.
Before You Start Your Application	Eligibility		You will need to select your basis for eligibility after you start your application. There is more information about specific eligibility requirements following these general eligibility requirements. In general, you may apply for naturalization when you meet all the requirements to become a U.S. citizen. The following general eligibility requirements apply to most naturalization applicants: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> You are at least 18 years of age when you file; You have been a lawful permanent resident of the United States for at least 5 years; You have demonstrated continuous residence in the United States for at least 5 years; You have lived in the U.S. state or U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) district where you claim residence for at least 3 months before filing; You have demonstrated physical presence in the United States for at least 30 months (913 days); You demonstrate good moral character; You demonstrate an attachment to the principles of the U.S. Constitution; You demonstrate a basic knowledge of U.S. history and government (also known as "civics") as well as an ability to read, write, speak, and understand basic English; and You are willing to take the Oath of Allegiance to the United States, and you are well disposed to the good order and happiness of the United States.
		[Accordion]	Lawful Admission for Permanent Residence In general, you must show that you have been lawfully admitted to the United States for permanent residence in accordance with all applicable provisions of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA) in effect at the time of your admission or adjustment. This requirement applies to your initial admission as a lawful permanent resident (LPR) or adjustment to LPR status, as well as all subsequent reentries into the United States. In addition, you must show that you have not abandoned your LPR status. If you leave the United States and demonstrate you no longer intend to reside in the United States, that is abandoning LPR status. Time as a Lawful Permanent Resident In general, you must be a lawful permanent resident for 5 years before applying for naturalization unless you are: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> A U.S. noncitizen national (person born in American Samoa or Swains Island); Applying for naturalization based on service in the U.S. armed forces; Applying for naturalization based on being a spouse of a U.S. citizen, including the spouse of a U.S. citizen in qualified employment outside the United States; or Applying for naturalization under the Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) based on being a spouse or child of a U.S. citizen who battered you or subjected you to extreme cruelty.
		[Accordion continued]	U.S. Nationals If you are a U.S. noncitizen national (you were born in American Samoa or Swains Island), you may apply for naturalization without LPR status. Residence of Students Lawful permanent resident students who are eligible for naturalization may apply for naturalization either in the USCIS district where they go to school or in the USCIS district where their parents live if they are still financially dependent on their parents. Applicants for Naturalization Based on Military Service During a Period of Hostilities If you apply for naturalization under INA section 329 (service during hostilities), you may apply for naturalization without LPR status, if you were in the United States or certain other specified areas at the time of enlistment, reenlistment, extension of enlistment, or induction. Conditional Permanent Residents If you are a conditional permanent resident, you must file Form I-751, Petition to Remove Conditions on Residence, or Form I-829, Petition by Investor to Remove Conditions on Permanent Resident Status, within 90 days before your conditional permanent resident status expires, unless you can establish good cause and extenuating circumstances for failing to file Form I-751 or Form I-829 during that time period. In most cases, you must have an approved Form I-751 or Form I-829 before we can approve your application for naturalization. Military members applying under INA section 329 and certain spouses of U.S. citizens employed outside the United States by qualified organizations under INA section 319(b) do not need an approved Form I-751 or Form I-829.
		[Accordion]	Eligibility Based on Marriage to a U.S. Citizen In addition to the general eligibility requirements listed above, you must meet certain requirements if you seek to naturalize based on your marriage to a U.S. citizen. If you or your spouse were previously married, you must demonstrate that all of your and your spouse's previous marriages were lawfully terminated. Generally, to qualify for naturalization based on marriage to a U.S. citizen, you must meet these requirements at the time you file your application: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> You must be legally married to a U.S. citizen who resides in the United States, and you must remain legally married to the U.S. citizen until you take the Oath of Allegiance; You must have been living in marital union with your U.S. citizen spouse for at least 3 years; Your spouse must have been a U.S. citizen for at least 3 years; and You must have been a lawful permanent resident for at least 3 years.
