

The following information is collected to set up your panelist profile in the REACH system.

Items with an asterisk (*) are required.

Please note that individuals are engaged as Special Government Employees while they serve on a panel. As such, panelists must be United States Citizens or Permanent Residents, also known as “green card” holders. All panelists must have an account with a U.S. bank or financial institution in order to be paid. If you have any questions about these requirements please reach out to your NEA staff contact before filling out this form.
