TITLE: The Bison Production and Marketing Grant Program (BPMGP)

USDA Agency: Agricultural Marketing Service (AMS)

Alignment with Information Collection Package: (Check one)

One-Time Pilot Program.

One-Time Funding Announcement of New Program.

Purpose: USDA is required by 2 CFR 200.204 to announce discretionary grants and cooperative agreements and other financial assistance programs through public announcement. This includes announcements for pilot programs and one-time funding programs.

The Bison Production and Marketing Grant Program (BPMGP) is authorized under Title VII section 764 of the Consolidated Appropriations Act of 2024 (Public Law 118—42). There is no indication that this will be funded as an ongoing program, so USDA is treating it as one-time funding announcement.

The purpose of BPMGP is to support projects that strengthen and enhance the production and marketing of bison and bison products in the United States, including business and resource development and the advancement of innovative approaches to solve long-term needs.

The information received through this collection will be used to evaluate the applications seeking funding under through this program. Eligible entities that would be subject to this collection if they complete a grant application include Agricultural Businesses or Cooperatives: Producer Networks or Associations, Nonprofit Corporations, Economic Development Corporations, and Tribal Governments certified by the Secretary of the Interior as eligible for the special programs and services provided through the Bureau of Indian Affairs.

The total estimated burden hours for completing a single BPMGP application is 9.25 hours. The total estimated burden hours for this collection is 277.50 hours. Grant applicants are required to submit their information via Grants.gov. Information collected as part of this one-time grant program includes completion of the Standardized Federal application forms named in the burden chart below, and the narrative questions found in the RFA. The burden for each of the already approved forms are outlined below and AMS staff is available to assist applicants and recipients if they have questions pertaining to the required information.

The affected public for this collection is limited to those entities and individuals that choose to apply for a grant. The number of estimated applicants is estimated to be 30 or less. Individuals or households will not be responding to this collection. The public beneficiaries of the work completed by the respondents that are selected as grantees include Bison producers and processors, and the general public who will benefit from the grow in supply and demand of Bison products.
