Dear [RECIPIENT NAME],

We are contacting you a final time about the USDA/APHIS/Wildlife Services predator damage management study because your input is vitally important to making representative, sound decisions. Whether or not Wildlife Services or predator damage management is of interest to you, your perspectives are crucial to improving livestock protection practices.

Please consider replying to this email with your responses to the following 2 questions.

1. Before Wildlife Services provided you with nonlethal predator damage management assistance, how interested were you in using nonlethal predator damage management methods on your livestock operation?

On a scale of 1 to 5, with 1 = "Not at all interested before" and 5 = "Extremely interested before," please reply to this email with the number that corresponds to your answer.

Not at all interested before	Slightly interested before	Moderately interested before	Very interested before	Extremely interested before
1	2	3	4	5

2. After receiving nonlethal predator damage management assistance from Wildlife Services, how interested were you in continuing to use nonlethal predator damage management methods on your livestock operation?

On a scale of 1 to 5, with 1 = "Not at all interested after" and 5 = "Extremely interested after," please reply to this email with the number that corresponds to your answer.

Not at all interested after	Slightly interested after	Moderately interested after	Very interested after	Extremely interested after
1	2	3	4	5

Thank you for time and consideration! If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact the project coordinator, Hailey Ellis via email at hailey.e.ellis@usda.gov or by phone at (970) 266-6148.

Sincerely,

Hailey Ellis
