

Author Full Name : Kelly Moore

Received Date : 03/27/2025 05:24 PM

Comments Received :

This renewal should not happen due to the lack of authority on the original contract and no other option for a new contract to be negotiated properly.

No contract should have been negotiated for product that is not being marketed in this industry. All products that are being sold must be monitored by an agency official to ensure accuracy and compliance with regulations. The agency must also comply with reporting and record keeping requirements for all of these services provided to the public by the agency.