Military Community and Family Policy within the Office of the Secretary of Defense is working with RAND on a study focused on how to support the recruitment and retention of high-quality military child development program staff. As part of this study, RAND is administering the Military Child Development Program Workforce Survey to all employees who are at least 18 years old who work in a child development center or a school-age center. To learn more about the survey, please go to [link to RAND page about study and survey].

If you are interested in participating in the survey, please go to [link to survey website].

Your voice in this study is so important. We want to ensure that the information collected is accurate and reflects what is happening in military child development programs. If you have any additional questions, you can contact the RAND study team at [SHARED EMAILBOX@rand.org]. The OMB Control Number for this study is 0704-MCDS expiration date MM/DD/YYYY.
