Attachment 1A

Census of Fatal Occupational Injuries
Data Elements
(Collected and Coded by States, Cities, and Territories)

- Reference State and year
- Injury or illness
- State of residence
- Date of birth
- Age, Source document associated with age
- Race, Source document associated with race
- Hispanic or Latino origin, Source document associated with Hispanic or Latino Origin
- Sex, Source document associated with sex
- Industry code and narrative (North American Industry Classification System (NAICS)), Source document associated with industry
- Ownership (Federal, State, local, foreign, or other government; or private sector), Source document associated with ownership
- Establishment size class
- Occupation code and narrative (Standard Occupational Classification (SOC)), Source document associated with occupation
- Employee status (Active duty military, self-employed, family business, working for pay, volunteer, institutionalized individuals, unknown), Source document associated with employee status
- State of employment
- Date of incident and death
- State of incident and death
- County/Township of injury
- Time of incident before time workday began
- Nature of injury/illness (BLS Occupational Injury and Illness Classification System (OIICS))
- Part of body (BLS OIICS)
- Primary and secondary source of injury/illness (BLS OIICS)
- Event or exposure (BLS OIICS), Source document associated with event or exposure
- Worker activity
- Location type (farm, street, mine, etc.)
- How the injury/illness occurred (narrative description; up to 1,500 characters)
- Source documents requested and received
- Link code (links fatalities resulting from a single incident)
- Birthplace—country
- Medical complication
- Contractor information (whether worker was employed by a contractor and contracting agency's industry code, industry narrative, and ownership)*
- Processing comments (state, regional, and national)
- Union status (whether bargaining unit existed in the workplace)
- Confined space incident (whether worker was in a confined space)
- Alcohol/drug, narrative (whether the decedent was under the influence of drugs or alcohol, and which ones specifically)

- Disaster codes (whether the death was a result of a CFOI-designated disaster)
- Seat belt (whether decedent was wearing a seat belt)
- Educational Attainment
- Veteran Status
- Independent Worker
