

Field Operational Test (FOT)

There are not any questions during that time, just driving (and some starting/stopping) to let the sensors take multiple measurements. In this case, they're "breathing" while driving and the sensors are taking unobtrusive measurements).