Other: All surveys conducted under the FR 3075 are voluntary. To the extent a respondent has already reported data to the Federal Reserve with the same as-of date as data requested in the exercise, respondents may simply reference the existing information in a qualitative document and the Federal Reserve will provide the data on the respondent's behalf. Responses will be kept private to the extent provided by law. To the extent responses include nonpublic commercial or financial information, which is both customarily and actually treated as private by the respondent, such information may be kept confidential pursuant to exemption 4 of the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA). Some survey responses may also contain information contained in or related to an examination of a financial institution, which may be kept confidential under exemption 8 of FOIA. To the extent a respondent submits personal, medical, or similar files, the disclosure of which would constitute an unwarranted invasion of privacy, the respondent may request confidential treatment pursuant to exemption 6 of the FOIA.

The ongoing public reporting bu	rden for this information collection is estimated to average 23.2 hours per response, including time to gather and maintain data in the required form and to review
