ENVIRONMENTAL ASSESSMENT OUTREACH

The Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearm, and Explosives' (ATF's) Office of Strategic Management is responsible for developing and administering ATF's Strategic Plan. A significant part of the Strategic Plan development is seeking feedback about ATF's performance from its stakeholders within and outside the agency. The input you provide as an external stakeholder will be used exclusively to understand and formulate our mission so that we can best serve the public, our partners and the regulated industries.

- 1. What do you believe to be ATF's strengths?
- 2. What do you believe to be ATF's weaknesses?
- 3. What can ATF do to improve its working relationship with you?
- 4. What, if any, emerging trends (political, social, and economic) in your opinion will impact your operations that ATF should be made aware of?
