Dear Employer,

Please use this website to complete your Survey of Occupational Injuries and Illnesses (SOII).

What you need to do:

1. Complete the survey only for the Establishment(s) listed under the 'Report for' heading in the notification(s) we sent you earlier this year.
2. If you received a notification asking you to report for additional establishments, you can also report for those establishments using this account by clicking the 'Add Establishment' button on the next screen and entering those Establishment IDs.

Information you will need:

- The SOII instructions that were sent to you.
- OSHA forms (Form 300, 300A, and 301).
 - If the information requested is not recorded in your records, please note, OSHA's recordkeeping rule.
- The average employment and the total number of employees.
- Details for injury and illness cases with days at work lost, provided later in Section 3 of this survey asking you to report on each case.

If you have questions about completing this survey, please contact us at the bottom of the page.

See our Frequently Asked Questions to familiarize yourself with the survey.

Continue

While entering your Survey of Occupational Injuries and Illnesses (SOII) data, please do not open more than one instance of the Internet Data Collection Facility (IDCF) website or use the browser "Back" button. Instead, please use the "Back" button or Section icons provided within the web page.
