DESCRIPTION OF PSP1 SPECIAL RULE REQUIREMENTS

[Tab should be named "Description of PSP1 Special Rule Requirements."]

The statute that established the Payroll Support Program Extension (PSP2) in December 2020 included a "Special Rule" that applies to catering contractors that participated in PSP1.

Under section 4113(A)(i) of the CARES Act, a catering contractor is a person that performs catering functions under contract with a passenger air carrier conducting operations under 14 CFR part 121.

The Special Rule requires all catering contractors that participated in PSP1 to report to Treasury the amount of PSP1 funds they expended through March 31, 2021. Further, if a catering contractor that received PSP1 funds does not expend 100% of its total PSP1 funds by April 30, 2021, all remaining PSP1 funds must be repaid to Treasury.

These statutory requirements are set forth in section 412 of under Division N of the Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2021.

Subject: PSP1 Special Rule Report

[Body (below):]

Dear PSP1 Recipient,

We are seeking information regarding your PSP1 funding balance as of April 30, 2021.

The statute that established the Payroll Support Program Extension (PSP2) in December 2020 included a “Special Rule” that applies to catering contractors that participated in PSP1. If a catering contractor expended less than 100 percent of its total PSP1 funds as of April 30, 2021, all remaining PSP1 funds must be repaid to Treasury.

As a catering contractor that received PSP1 financial assistance, you are subject to the Special Rule. You MUST provide information regarding your remaining PSP1 balance as of April 30, 2021 at [\[OCIO to provide a link\]](#).

THE DEADLINE FOR YOU TO SUBMIT THE INFORMATION IS 5:00 P.M. EDT ON MAY 10, 2021.

For information about PSP1 and other Treasury programs, please visit: <https://home.treasury.gov/cares>

Thank you.
