Due date: No later than 45 days after the acquisition is completed.

WHO MUST REPORT

A BE-13 report must be filed by a U.S. business enterprise when a foreign entity acquires all or part of the U.S. business enterprise, either directly, or indirectly through an existing U.S. affiliate, and

- (1) the total cost of the acquisition is greater than $40 million, and
- (2) by this acquisition, at least 10 percent of the voting interest in the acquired entity is now held (directly, or indirectly through an existing U.S. affiliate) by the foreign entity.

REPORT:

- Acquisition of all or part of a U.S. business enterprise, regardless of whether it will operate as a separate legal entity or will be merged into an existing U.S. affiliate of the foreign entity.
- Purchase of U.S. real estate (including land) that is intended for lease or sale without significant added construction.
- Establishment of a new U.S. business enterprise, that will not be dissolved, for the sole purpose of completely acquiring a single U.S. business enterprise within 30 days after the establishment. Consolidate the new U.S. business enterprise with the acquired U.S. business enterprise on a single BE-13A report.

DO NOT REPORT:

- Purchase of a U.S. business enterprise, or real estate, including land, or rights to land, on which you intend to perform construction before becoming operational. Report either as part of the establishment of a new U.S. affiliate (Form BE-13B) or as the expansion of an existing U.S. affiliate (Form BE-13D), whichever is applicable.
- Acquisition of additional voting interest in an existing U.S. affiliate in which a foreign entity already has a 10 percent voting interest. Report on Form BE-13 Claim for Exemption, only if contacted by BEA.
- Purchase of U.S. real estate to be held exclusively for personal use and not for profit-making purposes. Report on Form BE-13 Claim for Exemption, only if contacted by BEA.
- Certain private funds are exempt from filing Form BE-13A. Review exemption criteria on page 3, question 1, response option 5 of Form BE-13 Claim for Exemption.

OTHER BE-13 FORMS

Go to www.bea.gov/be13 for more information about other BE-13 forms.

Form BE-13B covers certain establishments of a new legal entity in the United States by a foreign entity.

Form BE-13D covers certain expansions of operations of existing U.S. affiliates.

Form BE-13E covers cost updates for previously filed Form BE-13B or BE-13D.

Form BE-13 Claim for Exemption covers certain transactions that are not required to be filed on Forms BE-13A, BE-13B, and BE-13D.

*See page 11 for penalties and confidentiality statements.

Consolidating the Acquired U.S. Entity

Consolidated reporting by the acquired U.S. entity (see EXAMPLE 1): The acquired U.S. business enterprise (A) must file Form BE-13A on a fully consolidated domestic U.S. basis. Include in the consolidation every U.S. business enterprise (B) and (C), proceeding down each ownership chain, whose voting interest is more than 50 percent owned by the U.S. business enterprise directly above.

Exclude from the full consolidation all minority-owned U.S. business enterprises (D) and all foreign business enterprises owned by this U.S. business enterprise; however, include them on an equity basis when reporting financial information on page 10.

- A minority-owned U.S. business enterprise must file a Form BE-13 Claim for Exemption if the minority-owned U.S. business enterprise has not previously filed a BE-13, BE-605, BE-12, or BE-15.

Hereinafter the consolidated U.S. businesses are considered to be the 'acquired U.S. entity'.

Business enterprise means any organization, association, branch, or venture that exists for profit-making purposes or to otherwise secure economic advantage, and ownership of any real estate that is not held for personal use.

Voting interest is the percent of ownership in the voting securities of an incorporated business enterprise, or an equivalent interest in an unincorporated business enterprise. Voting interest may not equal equity interest.

EXAMPLE 2. Direct and Indirect Voting Interest

Foreign parent is the FIRST entity incorporated outside the United States, proceeding up a chain of ownership, that has a 10 percent or more voting interest (directly, and/or indirectly through existing U.S. affiliates) in the acquired U.S. entity.

Affiliate means a business enterprise located in one country that is directly or indirectly owned or controlled by an entity of another country to the extent of 10 percent or more of its voting stock for an incorporated business or an equivalent interest for an unincorporated business enterprise.

- 2 What was the total cost to all foreign parents' affiliated foreign groups (see EXAMPLE 3) and their U.S. affiliates for the acquisition that occurred on the date reported in 1?

- Include the cost of voting interest and non-voting equity interest.
- Exclude the cost to any U.S. or foreign entity that is not affiliated with any of the foreign parents.

$ Bil. Mil. Thous. Dols.

EXAMPLE 3. Affiliated Foreign Group

Total Cost..... 102

1 _____ 000

Affiliated foreign group means:

- (1) the foreign parent,
- (2) any foreign entity, proceeding up the foreign parent's ownership chain, that owns more than 50 percent of the entity below it up to and including that entity which is not owned more than 50 percent by another foreign entity, and
- (3) any foreign entity, proceeding down the ownership chain(s) of each of these members, which is owned more than 50 percent by the member above it.

(As used here, "entity" is synonymous with "person," as that term is used in the broad legal sense.)

SURVEY INFORMATION

Purpose: This survey collects data on the acquisition or establishment of U.S. business enterprises by foreign investors and the expansion of existing U.S. affiliates of foreign companies to establish a new production facility. The data collected on the survey are used to measure the amount of new foreign direct investment in the United States, assess the impact on the U.S. economy, and based on this assessment, make informed policy decisions regarding foreign direct investment in the United States.

Authority: This survey is being conducted under the International Investment and Trade in Services Survey Act (P.L. 94-472, 90 Stat. 2059, 22 U.S.C. 3101-3108, as amended), hereinafter "the Act", and the filing of reports is MANDATORY pursuant to Section 5(b)(2) of the Act (22 U.S.C. 3104). The implementing regulations are contained in 15 CFR Part 801.

Penalties: Whoever fails to report may be subject to a civil penalty of not less than $4,450, and not more than $44,539, and to injunctive relief commanding such person to comply, or both. Whoever willfully fails to report shall be fined not more than $10,000 and, if an individual, may be imprisoned for not more than one year, or both. Any officer, director, employee, or agent of any corporation who knowingly participates in such violation, upon conviction, may be punished by a like fine, imprisonment, or both (22 U.S.C. 3105). Civil penalties are subject to inflationary adjustments. Those adjustments are found in 15 CFR 6.4.

Notwithstanding any other provision of the law, no person is required to respond to, nor shall any person be subject to a penalty for failure to comply with, a collection of information subject to the requirements of the Paperwork Reduction Act, unless that collection of information displays a currently valid OMB Control Number.

Respondent burden: Public reporting burden for this BE-13A form is estimated to average 2.5 hours per response, including time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing burden, to: Director, Bureau of Economic Analysis (BE-1), U.S. Department of Commerce, 4600 Silver Hill Road, Washington, DC 20233; and to the Office of Management and Budget, Paperwork Reduction Project 0608-0035, Washington, DC 20503.

Confidentiality: The Act provides that your report to this Bureau is CONFIDENTIAL and may be used only for analytical or statistical purposes. Without your prior written permission, the information filed in your report CANNOT be presented in a manner that allows it to be individually identified. Your report CANNOT be used for purposes of taxation, investigation, or regulation. Copies retained in your files are immune from legal process. Per the Cybersecurity Enhancement Act of 2015, your data are protected from cybersecurity risks through security monitoring of the BEA information systems.

DEFINITIONS

Affiliate means a business enterprise located in one country that is directly or indirectly owned or controlled by an entity of another country to the extent of 10 percent or more of its voting stock for an incorporated business or an equivalent interest for an unincorporated business enterprise.

Affiliated foreign group means:

- (1) the foreign parent,
- (2) any foreign entity, proceeding up the foreign parent's ownership chain, that owns more than 50 percent of the entity below it up to and including that entity which is not owned more than 50 percent by another foreign entity; and
- (3) any foreign entity, proceeding down the ownership chain(s) of each of these members, which is owned more than 50 percent by the member above it.

Branch means the operations or activities conducted by an entity in a different location in its own name rather than through an incorporated entity.

Business enterprise means any organization, association, branch, or venture that exists for profit making purposes or to otherwise secure economic advantage, and ownership of any real estate that is not held for personal use.

Country of residence for individuals who do not reside in their country of citizenship is determined using the following guidelines:

- (1) Individuals who reside, or expect to reside, outside their country of citizenship for less than one year are considered to be residents of their country of citizenship.
- (2) Individuals who reside, or expect to reside, outside their country of citizenship for one year or more are considered to be residents of the country in which they are residing, except as provided in (3) below.
- (3) If an owner or employee of a business enterprise resides outside the country of location of the enterprise for one year or more for the purpose of furthering the business of the enterprise, and the country of the business enterprise is the country of citizenship of the owner or employee, then the owner or employee is considered a resident of the country of citizenship provided he or she intends to return within a reasonable period of time.
- (4) Individuals and members of their immediate families who reside outside their country of citizenship as a result of employment by the government of that country – diplomats, consular officials, members of the armed forces, etc. – are considered to be residents of their country of citizenship.

Direct investment means the ownership or control, directly or indirectly, by one entity of 10 percent or more of the voting interest in a business enterprise.

Entity (as used here, "entity" is synonymous with "person," as that term is used in the broad legal sense) means any individual, branch, partnership, associated group, association, estate, trust, corporation, or other organization (whether or not organized under the laws of any state), and any government (including a foreign government, the United States Government, a state or local government, and any agency, corporation, financial institution, or other entity or instrumentality thereof, including a government-sponsored agency).

Foreign when used in a geographic sense, means that which is situated outside the United States or which belongs to or is characteristic of a country other than the United States.

Foreign direct investment in the United States means the ownership or control, directly or indirectly, by one foreign investor of 10 percent or more of the voting securities of an incorporated U.S. business enterprise or an equivalent interest in an unincorporated U.S. business enterprise, including a branch or partnership.

Foreign parent is the FIRST entity incorporated outside the United States, proceeding up a chain of ownership, that has 10 percent or more voting interest (directly, and/or indirectly through existing U.S. affiliates) in the acquired U.S. entity.

Minority-owned U.S. business enterprise means a U.S. business enterprise in which the U.S. business enterprise above it in an ownership chain holds 50 percent or less direct voting interest.

Research and development (R&D) is planned, creative work aimed at discovering new knowledge or developing new or significantly improved goods and services. This includes

- (1) activities aimed at acquiring new knowledge or understanding without specific immediate commercial application or use (basic research);
- (2) activities aimed at solving a specific problem or meeting a specific commercial objective (applied research); and
- (3) systematic use of research and practical experience to produce new or significantly improved goods, services, or processes (development).

R&D does NOT include expenditures for costs for routine product testing, quality control, and technical services unless they are an integral part of an R&D project; market research; efficiency surveys or management studies; literary, artistic, or historical projects, such as films, music, or books and other publications; prospecting or exploration for natural resources.

Ultimate beneficial owner (UBO) means the entity, proceeding up the ownership chain that includes the foreign parent, which is not more than 50 percent owned or controlled by another entity.

United States, when used in a geographic sense, means the 50 states, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, and all territories and possessions of the United States.

U.S. affiliate means an affiliate located in the United States in which a foreign entity has a direct investment.

Voting interest is the percent of ownership in the voting securities of an incorporated business enterprise or an equivalent interest in an unincorporated business enterprise.

- In a general or limited partnership, voting interest is presumed to be divided evenly between the general partners, and limited partners are presumed to have zero voting interest, unless otherwise stated in the partnership agreement.
- In the case of a limited liability corporation (LLC), voting interest is presumed to be divided equally between the members (owners), unless otherwise stated in the articles of organization or in the operating agreement.
