

Author Full Name : Rosa Torres

Received Date : 10/15/2025 12:18 PM

Comments Received :

It would be beneficial to include a section in the lease that allows for mediation with tenants. By addressing conflicts through mediation, tenants are less likely to lose their housing over issues that could have been resolved informally. It also provides a safe forum to resolve misunderstandings related to disability needs or requests without the need for immediate legal escalation.