Applicable Rules and Regulations

Section 63.24 of the Commission's rules set out the requirements for an application to assign an international section 214 authorization or to or transfer of control of a carrier. 47 CFR § 63.24.

Section 63.24(a)/Assignment and Transfers. Section 63.24(a) states that an international section 214 authorization may be assigned, or control of such authorization may be transferred by the transfer of control of any entity holding such authorization, to another party, whether voluntarily or involuntarily, directly or indirectly, only upon application to and prior approval by the Commission. 47 CFR § 63.24(a).

Section 63.24(f)(2)/Pro Formas. Section 63.24(f)(2) states that a pro forma assignee or a carrier that is subject to a pro forma transfer of control must file a notification with the Commission no later than thirty (30) days after the assignment or transfer is completed. 47 CFR § 63.24(f)(2).

Involuntary Assignment/Transfers. In the case of an involuntary assignment or transfer of control to: a bankruptcy trustee appointed under involuntary bankruptcy; an independent receiver appointed by a court of competent jurisdiction in a foreclosure action; or, in the case of death or legal disability, to a person or entity legally qualified to succeed the deceased or disabled person under the laws of the place having jurisdiction over the estate involved; the applicant must make the appropriate filing no later than 30 days after the event causing the involuntary assignment or transfer of control. 47 CFR § 63.24(g).

Separate Filings. A separate application needs to be filed for each carrier, even if the carriers are affiliated. The carrier may file a single application for multiple authorizations held by the carrier. Applicant(s) should refer to the Debt Collection Improvement Act of 1996. The Debt Collection Act requires all federal agencies to ensure that no debtors to the Federal government obtain any licenses or other benefits from the FCC. To ensure this, the Commission must collect FRN information to correlate its Applicants with any outstanding Federal debt that they might have incurred in other dealings with the Federal government. For additional information, press on the FCC's Debt Collection webpage, <https://www.fcc.gov/licensing-databases/fees/debt-collection-improvement-act-implementation>.
